

Lunch 'n' Lead

1.5 hour Online Sessions

Too busy for full day Leadership Training? Lunch n' Lead sessions solve this problem. Bring your lunch and Interact with leaders from different backgrounds, industries, levels of seniority. Dynamic, interactive, thought-provoking and fun!

Practical & Inspiring Topics

Leadership Training and topics are evidence-based, modern, inspiring yet highly practical. Learn models from the experts such as Simon Sinek, Dr Brene Brown, Patrick Lencioni, Bob Anderson, Dr Mary Gentile, David Rock, Nilima Bhat and many more.

Every fortnight - Friday Lunch

Leadership Training online sessions occur each fortnight on a Friday. Our research shows Friday lunch is a good time to hold Lunch n' Lead. Leaders have the weekend to absorb the learning and are ready to put the tools into action the following week.

Tailored to your workplace

Every fortnight we will present a leadership topic and a model to discuss and practice. Join leaders from varied companies, industries, and countries to discuss solutions to common leadership problems. The cost of each 1.5-hour session is AU $225 per leader.

We can tailor the Lunch 'n' Learn sessions to real-time events that are emerging in your business. For example, perhaps you've had a spate of unaddressed performance issues and you'd like your leaders to be more confident in addressing them. That will become our topic for the fortnight.
