Account Testimonials

"Since we brought in Collars & Co it has been one of our best sellers. It sells itself, providing a formal look while also being comfortable wear for the golf course."

Steven Melendez
Golf Retail Manager
The Biltmore
Coral Gables, Florida

"I wasn't looking for another shirt line then I gave one to my husband and HE LOVED IT. Since bringing Collars & Co into our shop it has outsold my expectations, selling hundreds of shirts and having to reorder 4 times in the last 3 months. I couldn't believe how many customers had already heard of the brand. Look forward to seeing what Justin has coming next."

Celine Thibault,
Director of Retail,
PGA National Resort
Palm Beach Gardens, Florida

We are very proud Boca West is ranked as the country's leading private residential country club and our member experience is something that we do not take lightly. As a result, our team is trained in vetting the best possible resources and products for our membership. Collars & Co. has redefined excellence in golf apparel, creating shirts that blend classic elegance with modern performance. On the golf course or in the dining room Collars & Co. sets a new standard in quality.

Travis Wehrs, PGA
Director of Golf
Boca West Country Club
Boca Raton, FL

"Collars & Co. has been a game changer in our shop. Golfers are loving the ability to go straight from a business meeting to the course without changing. The shirts have a great feel and golfers love how the collars hold up after many washes"

WOMEN'S WEAR DAILY

I recently came across an forward-thinking menswear item from Collars & Co. The progressive brand has changed the game in the shirting industry. They developed an original dress-collar polo. Essentially, it is a comfortable stretch polo shirt with a structured dress collar. The style provides a hassle-free way to look polished with all the benefits of a classic dress shirt. I own one and I fully endorse the item. More importantly, I am interested in watching this brands development - moving into the near future.

Menswear Focuses Strongly On Sustainability And Craftsmanship In 2022

JOSEPH DEACETIS | DEC 3, 2021

the office to the course easier than ever. The viral product combines a formal English dress collar with the silhouette of a 4-way stretch short-sleeved polo shirt. Layer with a jacket or sweater during the work day for a comfortable but professional look and shed down to the polo when it's time to hit the links.

7 viral TikTok and Instagram golf products worth trying out

In April, Justin Baer posted a video on his TikTok, where he had almost no audience to speak of. The video showed him talking about the problem that inspired his brand, Collars & Co. — the annoyance of wearing a lumpy collared shirt under a sweater — along with a demonstration of his alternative.

The featured shirt has a dressy collar but a soft pullover body meant to look smooth and seamless under a sweater. Baer had only ordered a small batch of 500 pieces, not sure if it would actually take off. But the video went viral, being viewed more than 800,000 times. Within two days, the company had sold out all 500 pieces. Within four months, Baer went from buying 500 shirts at a time to buying 6,000 at a time. Soon, he said, he'll be increasing those orders to 10,000 to keep up with demand.

How a buzzy new brand is scaling up in the midst of a global supply chain crisis

The Pima Blend Quarter Zip is the layer you reach for when you want to look polished without feeling overdressed. Crafted with a smooth, soft feel and a subtle micro-textured finish, it delivers a refined look that works everywhere, over a tee on weekends, or paired with a collar for an easy, pulled-together upgrade. Finished with a clean quarter-zip neckline and structured trim, it's the definition of modern comfort with a sharp edge.

Details

- Ultra-soft feel with a subtle micro-textured, premium finish
- Clean quarter-zip neckline for easy layering and temperature control
- Smooth, elevated drape that holds its shape without feeling stiff
- Ribbed cuffs and hem for a neat, tailored silhouette
- Lightweight comfort that transitions from casual to elevated
