The Fifth Annual Tuscarora Pow Wow and Blue Grass Festival is planned for May 10-12, 1985 at the Drowning Creek Reservation, 1 1/2 miles N, NE of Maxton (near the Junction of 1303 and 1360 on a Dead End Road).

Performers will include the Bass Mountain Boys, the McNeill Quartet, Potsuma and Shucata, Jimbo McLendon and Leon Locklear. Special guests will include Dr. Hakim Khan, Department of Indian Education; William Lynn Engles, Commissioner, Adm. for Native Americans; Dr. Lincoln White, National Advisory Council on Indian Education; and Robert B. Brewington of Pembroke.

Locklears Celebrate Birthdays

Mr. Theodore Locklear of Route 4, Lumberton and his grandson, Earl David Locklear of Pembroke celebrated their birthdays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cedell Hammonds last Saturday. Mr. Theodore celebrated his 64th birthday while his grandson, Earl David, celebrated his 19th birthday. The party was hosted by Mr. Theodore's daughters, Barbara Hammonds, Brenda Locklear, Donna Kay Locklear and Porchia Thomas, mother of Earl David Jr. The party was attended by a host of relatives and friends.
