

American Hostess

The Miss American Hostess title is designed to recognize all royalty that have supported the American Ambassador pageant system.

To earn this title, the contestant must have earned 10,000 points prior to this year's pageant. (Points are not accumulative from year to year.)

The following is a list of how the contestant can earn points:

Recruiting – 2000 points each

For every new contestant that the contestant brings to the pageant, they will earn 2000 points per person. The new contestant must compete in this year's pageant; otherwise it is consider just a referral.

Referrals – 100 points each (Limit only 10 referrals)

For every complete referral (name, phone number, and email address) that the contestant gives to the American Ambassador Pageant System they will earn 100 point for each one.

Titles – 1000 points each

For every title a contestant competes for, they will earn 1000 points.

Appearances – 250 points each

For every appearance that the contestant makes representing the American Ambassador Pageant System, they will earn 250 points.

Optional Entries – 250 points each

For every optional competition that the contestant competes for, that do not lead to a title, they will earn 250 points.

Ticket Sales - 50 points each

For every ticket sold for the pageant weekend, the contestant will earn 50 points for each.
