

Humanitarian Ambassador

Interview – 25%

Required Apparel: Interview Outfit, Shoes, and Accessories

The interview will be in a panel setting. You will sit before judges and answer questions presented to you. They will ask their own chosen questions, questions based off your resume, and questions based specific to your age division. Female contestants can wear interview suits or dresses. If you decide on a dress or a skirt, please make sure it is not too short. Pants suits are allowed.

Male contestants are asked to wear a suit that you would wear for an interview. Even though it is allowed, we suggest that you do not wear heavy makeup.

Interview shoes should be conservative and complement your outfit. Jewelry should be simple and not distract away from your face.

Community Service – 35%

You will earn 25% from your community service form. 5% will come from a poster board that you will create from your 1 of your favorite community service event. Include photos, details, and anything you want that shows what you did and why it is your favorite. The last 5% will be earned by bringing one, unwrapped toy for Toys for Tots.

Essay – 20%

Your essay should be no more than one page. Your essay should be on the following topic: Tell us about your favorite Humanitarian. Why do they inspire you?

A copy of your essay will need to be turned in by August 31st, 2020.

Scrapbook -20%

The contestant will design a scrapbook that highlights your community service work. The judges will be looking for design, the community service performed, as well as how it tells the story of your community service. Your scrapbook will need to be turned in a check in.

Opening Number

Required Apparel: Pageant T-shirt, denim jeans, jean skirt, shorts, or capris, socks, tennis shoes. T-shirt information will be announced when the final schedule is released. Aside for the T-shirt, please bring the required apparel listed above. This will be the outfit you wear for the opening number.