A Message from the President
Eastview Wrestling Boosters

Dear Eastview Wrestling Family, Friends and Fans

Lisa and I are proud to be a part of the 2017-2018, Eastview Wrestling Booster Club. The Wrestling Booster Club has been an active organization in the Eastview community, committed to promoting the sport of wrestling. The club's goal is to help facilitate a rewarding and memorable experience for our student-athletes and their families.

The EWB meets monthly, and parents with wrestlers at any level are encouraged to attend. It is not limited to varsity wrestler's parents. Getting involved helps your son, AND the program. It shows your support of not only your son, but the team as a whole. Feel free to e-mail ciresearchguy@yahoo.com, or call 612-237-9852, with any questions regarding meeting times and ways to get involved.

We would like to thank all Eastview parents, families, alumni, and supporters that invest their time and talents to serve the wrestling community. Serving on the EWB board, committees, and leadership is what makes our wrestling family successful now, and in the future.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank our coaching staff for their continued support of our student athletes as they succeed on the mat and in the classroom.

"True Grit" is a great motto for our wrestlers and their willingness to work hard, and never give up. The idea of never giving up and continually giving more effort than required, will help our wrestlers be successful this season and throughout life. We wish the best of luck to the wrestlers and coaches as they strive to perform at their best during the 2017-2018 season.

Go Lightning!

WELCOME TO EASTVIEW WRESTLING 2017-2018

True Grit
2017-2018 Eastview Wrestling

Wrestling requires a determination and self-reliance not found in other sports. It is one-on-one and a true test of toughness and skill. Grueling practices; the running, the weights, the drilling, the cutting weight—all for 6 minutes of intense competition. There is nothing quite like it. True Grit is this season's wrestling quote. What does this mean? How does this apply to wrestling and our athletes?

We asked our Eastview wrestlers, "What does True Grit mean to you?"

- "Working hard when nobody is watching."
- "Overcoming obstacles."
- "Learning from losses and working harder than anyone else in the room."
- "Be confident when things don't always go right."

Our young men are on the right track in their thinking of True Grit.

David Yukelson, the Ph.D., Coordinator of Sport Psychology Services for Student-Athletes at Penn State University lists seven attributes of Developing Mental Toughness, which is synonymous with TRUE GRIT:

Developing Mental Toughness/TRUE GRIT

1. Starts with the right attitude and state of mind (know what your core confidence is all about).
 - Confidence comes in knowing your are prepared and having an unshakable belief in your abilities to reach intended goals.

2. Program your mind for success ahead of time with positive affirmations and expectations.
 - Expect the best from yourself; affirm what it is you are going to do to be successful.
3. Routinize Your Behaviors: Develop a systematic pre-performance routine that clicks on desired mental-emotional state of mind (practice, pre-game, competition)
 - Practice – commit yourself to giving it everything you have the entire practice. This includes making a commitment to listening, learning, executing skills/drills with precision and full focus).
4. Poise and Composure: Learn how to let go of mistakes quickly if things do not go the way you want.
5. Take Control of Negative Self-Talk: Reframe negative talk into positive task oriented suggestions.
 - Starts with awareness of situations that cause you to get frustrated, rushed, intimidated, lose focus — then reframe the negativity into positive, mentally tough self-suggestions.
6. Look at failure as a stepping stone for future achievement:
 - Champions approach to overcoming adversity: Play to win as opposed to fear making mistakes.
7. Be a difference maker, step up and have a peak performance when it matters the most.

If our athletes develop these seven attributes, and fully buy in to the True Grit motto; this season will be a success!

"The 1st period is won by the best technician. The 2nd period is won by the kid in the best shape. The 3rd period is won by the kid with the biggest heart." — Dan Gable

School Song

Go Eastview Lightning
Victory is our game.
Blaze a trail of glory
Marching on to fame.
Feel the mighty thunder,
Flash that fills the sky.
Blue, black and white won't
Give up the fight,

We're the lightning from Eastview High.
Eastview Lightning
Fight, fight, fight.
Go, fight, win tonight!

Commitment To Excellence

How good do you want to be? If your answer is, "good enough to get by," than a commitment to excellence is not necessary, but if your completely honest answer is, "the best," you must make a total commitment to excellence.

Wrestlers are born with varying degrees of natural ability. Sacrifice and a commitment to excellence are required to develop that ability. Time, hard work, continuous practice and repetition all go into the making of a good athlete.

To be a winner you must be willing to make sacrifices. This means maintaining good training habits, getting the proper amount of rest, and eating a balanced diet.

You can be as great as you want to be. If you believe in yourself and have the courage, determination, dedication, competitive drive, and if you are willing to give up the little things in life to accomplish an ultimate goal down the road, you will succeed!

In our years of involvement in athletics, we have seen athletes make a sincere commitment to excellence. They had a burning desire to be not just good, but great. They craved coaching. They wanted to learn a new wrestling move every day. They worked harder than the other wrestlers during the season and they never stopped working in the offseason. They went out of their way to look for tougher competition. Finally, they were stubborn – they refused to settle for anything less than the best.

As a result, each was a big winner. There was no luck or chance involved; these wrestlers worked hard so they would always have an edge when they went into their matches. They knew they would win...and they did.

A commitment to excellence means you must be willing to work hard, to push yourself physically until it hurts. We believe that any wrestler who walks off the mat after a full match and is not physically spent has not worked to his physical potential

If you have a true commitment to excellence you will give up anything that does not help you become better as an athlete or a person. Don't be content with mediocrity- strive to live up to the greatness within you.

COMMITMENT NIGHT: This is a night for you to pledge your commitment to excellence in the Eastview Wrestling program. This night will involve activities that encourage you to reflect on your goals and to discuss what it will take to reach those goals. Also, this night will emphasize each wrestler's commitment to the whole team. We depend upon each wrestler to succeed. Your complete commitment is crucial to the success of the team. You deserve to give yourself the best opportunity to succeed. BE THE BEST YOU CAN BE!

The great coach Vince Lombardi had this to say about making the commitment to excellence:

"For the winner there is 100 percent elation, 100 percent laughter, 100 percent fun and for the loser the only thing left is a 100 percent resolution and 100 percent determination. The game, I think, is a great deal like life. Every man makes his own personal commitment toward excellence and toward victory. Although you know ultimate victory can never be completely won, it must be pursued with all of one's might and each week there is a new encounter, each year a new challenge."

"I'd like to say that the quality of any man's life is a full measure of that man's personal commitment to excellence and to victory, regardless of what field he may be in."

MAKE A COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE!
