A Message from the President Eastview Wrestling Boosters

Eastview Wrestling fans, friends, and families, thank you so much for your incredible support for the team and coaches this season. The mantra of this season is "Into the Storm", it comes from a lesson learned in the off season inspired by the American Bison. I encourage you to ask the Lightning Wrestlers or Coach Fornicoia about the meaning of this motto and their interpretation of the story.

To me "Into the Storm" represents everything that is great about the Eastview Wrestling Program. It exemplifies the fact that no matter how strong we are as individuals, as a team and a community we are that much stronger. As a cohesive unit we can face the challenges that come at us through the year and rely on the strength of our teammates, coaches, and families to help us make it through the struggles and emerge even stronger. (Not to mention you can't have a Storm without some Lightning!)

I would like to thank all of the people who give their time and energy to make the Eastview Wrestling Program a success. Thank you to the coaches who teach not only wrestling, but help to mold our children into young men and women who know the importance of hard work and determination, the ability to celebrate success with class, and the strength to arise from defeat to fight again.

Thank you to the Eastview Wrestling Boosters who contribute so much of their time behind the scenes to organize fundraising events, concession sales, tournaments and make all of these events look seamless. Parents, without your support and giving of your time and energy we would not be able to make the season a success. THANK YOU!

I also need to thank our many sponsors. We could not make Eastview Wrestling a success without their financial support. In an age where so many programs are seeking additional funds, we are grateful to have sponsors who have supported us for years, and welcome our newest sponsors. I encourage you to review the sponsors listed in the program and give them the opportunity to win your business, I know you won't be disappointed by them.

As you reflect on the matches so far this season and anticipate the excitement of the matches to come, I encourage you to become more active in the EVWB. We all need to go "Into the Storm" together in order to emerge with wrestling a program that is strong and viable for years to come. Please find me at a meet or email me at eastviewwrestlingboosters@gmail.com to discuss how you can add value to the Eastview Wrestling Program.

LET'S GO LIGHTNING!!!

Into the Storm

2023-2024 Eastview Wrestling

The motto for the 2023-2024 Eastview Wrestling team is "Into The Storm!" This motto is symbolized by the mighty bison that, when facing a storm, do not run away like its closest relative, the domesticated cow. Rather it confronts the storm directly in its path. We at Eastview Wrestling are like the bison, facing challenges head-on with spirit and intensity.

In wrestling, as in life, we will face many challenges. A big question is how will we react when faced with such events? Will we work hard and be comfortable in our uncomfortableness, or will we shy away from certain conflicts?

Let's look at an example for this idea in the wrestling world. Spencer Lee, the distinguished wrestler from the University of Iowa. Going into the National tournament he was fighting off some knee injuries and surgeries, but didn't let that stop him from being the number one seed at his weight class and dominating the field — until the semifinals. Spencer was wrestling Matt Ramos of Purdue who put the Hawkeye on his back in dramatic fashion and pinned him ending his quest to become a four-time national champion. During a post-match interview, he didn't shy away, but let the reporters know that he didn't blame his injuries on the loss. "I just got beat." Spencer could have walked away and took a few years off to heal from his injuries, but he did not — he trained and won the Senior Open, prepping for a spot on the United States Olympic team competing in Paris 2024. By the way he took on setbacks or storms in his wrestling life, there is no doubt he will be representing the U.S.A. on their Freestyle wrestling team.

At Eastview Wrestling we take on challenges, we embrace the hard things. It may be easier to be like the cow, and huddle together or run away from the storms in life, but that's not our way. We accept all challenges and will come out on top. During hard workouts in the wrestling room, or having a tough weight room session, or during a long tough tournament, we accept these contests head-on like the mighty bison, thus growing as a wrestler and as people.

Into The Storm!

5th Annual Summer Picnic / Bean Bag Tournament

On Thursday, July 20, 2023, we gathered wrestlers, along with family and friends, for the 5th annual Summer Picnic/Bean Bag Tournament at Trapp Farm Park in Eagan. We raised money for the wrestling program, but ultimately we had fun and fellowship with our Eastview Wrestling Family!

Commitment To Excellence

How good do you want to be? If your answer is, "good enough to get by," than a commitment to excellence is not necessary, but if your completely honest answer is, "the best," you must make a total commitment to excellence.

Wrestlers are born with varying degrees of natural ability. Sacrifice and a commitment to excellence are required to develop that ability. Time, hard work, continuous practice and repetition all go into the making of a good athlete.

To be a winner you must be willing to make sacrifices. This means maintaining good training habits, getting the proper amount of rest, and eating a balanced diet.

You can be as great as you want to be. If you believe in yourself and have the courage, determination, dedication, competitive drive, and if you are willing to give up the little things in life to accomplish an ultimate goal down the road, you will succeed!

In our years of involvement in athletics, we have seen athletes make a sincere commitment to excellence. They had a burning desire to be not just good, but great. They craved coaching. They wanted to learn a new wrestling move every day. They worked harder than the other wrestlers during the season and they never stopped working in the offseason. They went out of their way to look for tougher competition. Finally, they were stubborn—they refused to settle for anything less than the best.

As a result, each was a big winner. There was no luck or chance involved; these wrestlers worked hard so they would always have an edge when they went into their matches. They knew they would win...and they did.

A commitment to excellence means you must be willing to work hard, to push yourself physically until it hurts. We believe that any wrestler who walks off the mat after a full match and is not physically spent has not worked to his physical potential.

If you have a true commitment to excellence you will give up anything that does not help you become better as an athlete or a person. Don't be content with mediocrity—strive to live up to the greatness within you.

The great coach Vince Lombardi had this to say about making the commitment to excellence:

"For the winner there is 100 percent elation, 100 percent laughter, 100 percent fun and for the loser the only thing left is a 100 percent resolution and 100 percent determination. The game, I think, is a great deal like life. Every man makes his own personal commitment toward excellence and toward victory. Although you know ultimate victory can never be completely won, it must be pursued with all of one's might and each week there is a new encounter, each year a new challenge.

"I'd like to say that the quality of any man's life is a full measure of that man's personal commitment to excellence and to victory, regardless of what field he may be in."
