

Phil of Genesis is a vibrant musical tribute band based in the Northern California Bay Area, dedicated to celebrating the unforgettable hits of Phil Collins and Genesis.

With a passion for these iconic artists, the band delves deep into their impressive catalog, which boasts numerous chart-topping singles, prestigious Grammy Awards, and even an Academy Award.

During the heights of the 80s and 90s, Phil Collins' music was a near-constant presence on terrestrial radio, captivating audiences with a new song every 15 minutes worldwide, a testament to his immense popularity.

The talented members of Phil of Genesis are seasoned musicians, rich in experience from performing in renowned cover bands and supporting various national acts on tour.

Their impressive backgrounds also include contributions as songwriters for the film and television industry, with multiple credits that showcase their versatility and creativity.

This dynamic four-piece ensemble, complemented by skilled background singers, can seamlessly adapt to different venues by incorporating a brass section, creating a fuller, richer sound as needed.

They bring the iconic songs of Phil Collins and Genesis to life with remarkable authenticity, delivering performances that resonate deeply with fans and thrill audiences.

As their following continues to grow, Phil of Genesis is quickly gaining recognition as a top choice for those eager to relive the magic that Phil Collins and Genesis brought to the music world.

Each show is an electrifying journey through timeless hits, crafted to captivate your audience and ensure an unforgettable night filled with nostalgia and joyous celebration.

Band Members:

Chaz Ross – Lead Vocals, Keys & Synths

Stefan Antonino – Bass, Backing Vocals

Jeff Frazier – Lead Guitar, Backing Vocals

Mick Sorey – Drums, Percussion

Background Vocals:

Karen Ross

Tori Gregory

Horn Section:

Tim Ford – Trumpet

Trevor Strohl – Saxophone