

THE OUTRIDER – Out of the Void

03 - Bring the Sunshine

The first time I saw you, you know I felt it inside
I thought that you could, make me feel alright
But you were loving some other guy
And like a fool I kept waiting, for a new day

I wanna see you again, just for a moment

Trying to find you, one face in a crowd
Finding the time to search for you, every day
In every way I felt love slipping away
And I saw my chances, just passing me by

I wanna see you again, just now and then

You say one thing with your words, you say another with your eyes
Well, you walked into my life, then you walked out again
Just like a stormwind tearing life from the land
And the excitement never seemed to end
But dont you know that your house is... its built on the sand

I wanna see you again, just now and then

THE OUTRIDER – Out of the Void

Another day ends, shadows rise overhead

A fear takes hold of my heart, and inside my head

Then in the darkness, the rain came and turned into hail

I could hear myself calling out

Bring the sunshine my way

I'm not sure I wanna see you again, well, just now and then

You know I never wanna see you again... Alright
