

THE OUTRIDER – Out of the Void

07 - The House of Elrond

In the hills they wait for you
See them arrive in the firelight
The steel they carry is straight and true
And the things they say, and the things they do
Are aimed at you.

Keep moving along, dont get delayed
Stay off the road even at daybreak
And against the Ringwraiths dont be afraid
In the house of Elrond, there's a safe place to stay
In Rivendell

And from the mountains, no sign of home
Down in the valley there's a cold wind blowing
Thinking back then, when they were free
But Merry, Pippin and Sam agreed
In the Shire
