

THE OUTRIDER – Out of the Void

08 - Borderline

The road that I was on, was winding and led towards The Son
I could see inside of me, but I was taken down by treachery
Because I listened to my heart, and now I'm shot full of holes
But my pain, it don't look for gain, at the borderline

It has only just begun, another day then when all is said and done
It is in this way I learned, that time becomes the fire in which we burn
And I'm running out of time, just walking the wire
But my pain, it don't look for gain, at the borderline

I'm taking cover from the heat, I'm dodging bullets from The Truth that I believe
Just like a river to the sea, our memories last longer than our dreams
Now there's nowhere left to hide, I'm feeling shorter than tall
But my pain, it don't look for gain, at the borderline
