Courtney Dickinson
Country Singer, Songwriter & Musician

Courtney takes on Country Music with both class and sass that is as bold as her red hair. With two Top 40 Hits, and one Top 20 Single on Radio, she is proud to say that “I did it in a very grassroots manner, without a Record Promoter or help from a Label.” Visiting radio stations all across the U.S., sharing her music, and making lifelong friends with these radio stations, has given her the opportunity to self promote two of the three hit singles. A lover of 90's Country, she adds her flair to both male and female 90's country, along with current country hits to make up her set list. It's a set list that is sure to please everyone! Courtney is from Acworth, Georgia, and can be found playing local and national stages. You can find her music on almost any digital retail outlet. Connect with her at www.CourtneyDickinson.com and find upcoming show dates and news.
