

witnessing the transmitted event that showed a cosmic holographic image of His face is what won the consensus of our entire world from this visual information and a myriad of proven spoken explanations have we been able to build agreement and plan faithful goals so to make the inhabitants of our world finally believe to also be created in the image of God like everyone everywhere else

halleluajah

☆ we begin to see ☆ all of us ☆ not just the *set-aside*s ☆ for the very first time, rather than only hear and wonder, every being on our star has agreed to heed Him as the earth-edenlings try to do ☆ to have faith that the messages we have been recording for eons are indeed the ultra kind kind ☆ repeating lilting sounds made by our most supernatural God ☆ from He who wants us all ever close to Him much sooner than later rather than transmitted confusions from the competing worlds, the other Good members of our universal council ☆ as we each are now becoming more sure of our missions and their need for many lifetimes to complete, certainly we should be able to at least mimic and eventually catch up with earthly faith in Goodness ☆ that which we are coming to hold so valuable and essential to successful progressions of the big project ☆

☆ amen ☆

once again, shortly after making You in my image did mine begin to change ◇ in particular, from Your Good and loving acts ◇ how quickly they echo back ◇ each in the form of an unarranged, unexpected, cosmic, pliant and changeable tattoo ◇ as each of Your forgivenesses, kindnesses and mercies progress farther and more swiftly than me ever imagined ◇ thus soulful similarities have superceded physical likenesses so to make me image of You appear to be as radiant as that of me ◇ so that having created all in the image of myself has become cause for uniquely individual Goodnesses to become the most recognizeably original memorable feature possible ◇ so even as two eyes a nose and one mouth have provided the means for endless symmetrical likenesses of the same kind of being with enough original differences, even better be that heart and soul offer loving characteristics in endless varying degrees that also afford sacred recognizeability ◇ am totally confident, therefore, that the environment we share in heaven will be on a plain far higher than me originally planned ◇

◇ such a combination of growth and capacity allows permissions that each faith in me need not be the same ◇ as i have not asked for any hurts be caused to another for simply not believing the same way ◇ which allows every gratefully graceful reasoning to celebrate the same Goods hand in hand ◇ so as all such pleasing reflections return to my own face, it is now emblozened with all of You in a kaleidoscopic pattern of ever merging joyful remembrances so that we can further grow all the Goodnesses better together there and here in heaven ◇ as even so, up close and personal, shall Yee finally see the original creator ◇ me, in the eyes as i looked in Your past beginnings ◇ as You remember how i looked before ◇ when we first met during those days of the talks that defined Your mission ◇ as we now meet to decide if Your work be complete ◇

◇ oh how we look forward to Your arrival ◇ so blessed will we all be to see and feel You again ◇ already are our souls rejoicingly reaching out to anticipate and precisely hear each of every word about the progress and achievement of Your Good works, Your mission ◇

◇ the one that takes us all to Him when it is time to go ◇

◇ identical to that of our own mother ship ◇

◇ me thinks most earth-edingings would agree that her design is precisely she be ◇ right above you says, rudenha, there them ayford ◇
