

All fences must be approved by the HOA. Wrought iron option will be standard for the neighborhood. Stone or brick columns can be added to match home exterior. For privacy fence options, it must look like an extension of home.

Stain color must be approved and must be stained dark or to match the shutters on home exterior. Brick and stone walls are permitted if it matches home exterior. All other options may be submitted for approval. Picket fences are prohibited.