SPLEX One, a minority-owned company founded in 2007 in New York City, excels in advertising, media production, entertainment, and broadcasting. Our mission is to create a distinctive presence in our industries while contributing to societal betterment through innovative and high-quality services.

Core Competencies

Video Production: We produce clear, professional video content for public outreach, internal training, and compliance communication. Whether for safety campaigns or enforcement rollout, our videos are designed to inform and engage.

Photography: Our team captures professional photography on-site for documentation, reporting, community updates, and milestone coverage.

Training and Instructional Media: We develop high-quality training videos tailored for internal teams, contractors, and the public. These videos are ideal for onboarding, technology walkthroughs, or procedural education.

Event Coverage: We handle full coverage of public announcements, press events, stakeholder briefings, and community sessions. Content is delivered ready for both social media and traditional broadcast.

Public Service Announcements (PSAs) From scripting to final edit, we create PSAs that deliver important messages to New Yorkers. We focus on clarity, emotional resonance, and cultural connection.

Digital Content and Design: We create infographics, animations, and short-form media to simplify complex topics and promote public understanding of city programs.

Live Streaming Services: We manage live streams for events, briefings, and webinars with full technical support, overlays, multilingual captioning, and public engagement tools.

Why Agencies Choose SPLEX One

We have deep experience working with public sector organizations and understand the need for fast, clear, and mission-aligned media. Our team has produced content for dozens of city-facing initiatives with a focus on safety, equity, and public trust. Our process is efficient and collaborative, from planning to filming to editing, so our agency partners can stay focused on the big picture. We are certified, insured, and ready to work as a subcontractor or vendor with minimal onboarding.
