RETAINER AGREEMENT

Dear Llywelyn:

This written Retainer Agreement, which will be signed by both of us, sets forth our understanding of the basis upon which this Firm is engaged to represent you. All agreements relating to fees and responsibilities are contained within the provisions of this Agreement.

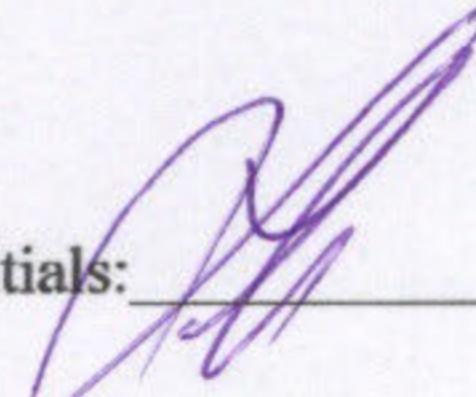

This Agreement will not take effect, and this Firm will have no obligation to provide legal services until you return a signed copy of this agreement and pay the retainer fee of $3,000.

1. Legal Services Generally Provided by this Firm:

As a general matter, we represent litigants in Family Law and Estate Planning matters. However, due to my knowledge, experience and practice as an active member of the Bar in England and Wales, I have been retained in the past to advise clients on matters involving United Kingdom law as it pertains to division of real property located in the United Kingdom, United Kingdom Constitution Law and the British legal system in general.

In your case, this Firm will advise you on the following areas of United Kingdom law with respect to:

- A. The case for Welsh sovereignty, the legality of reparations, and other claims to leadership rights. In the event it becomes necessary, correspondence to the College of Arms, an organization based in London, England that maintains registers of arms, pedigrees, genealogies, Royal Licenses, changes of name, and flags.

2. Scope and Duties of Denise E. Oxley CFLS:

This Agreement is a standard agreement which sets forth the legal services this Firm will provide to you. You have requested, and we have agreed, subject to the terms of this Agreement.

Our objective in representing you is to provide those legal services reasonably required to achieve the objectives of representation. We will take reasonable steps to keep you informed of the progress of your case and to respond to your inquiries in a timely manner. You have agreed to be truthful, cooperate with the attorney(s) and staff of this Firm, keep us informed of any developments, abide by this Agreement, pay your bills on time and keep us advised of your address, telephone number and whereabouts.

We propose to prepare and competently pursue your legal representation. This will include investigating the facts and circumstances of your case and identifying the appropriate course of action. We will undertake to advise you, prepare and draft appropriate pleadings and file and serve all necessary court documents. In the event that mediation is the recommended course of action to achieve resolution of the matter, we will prepare for, file any necessary documents and participate with you in mediation.

Should your case require litigation because mediation is not strategically appropriate or reasonable attempts at mediation fail, this Firm will work with you to obtain additional statements of witnesses, depositions, and otherwise conduct what is known as "discovery" of the case before the trial if such a course of action is necessary.

We will also be responsible for preparing for any mediation or trial that becomes necessary, carrying on any negotiations for settlement which you authorize, and appearing on your behalf at all court proceedings.

Please note however, that this Agreement does not in any way obligate this Firm to represent you in any appeal of court orders. If an appeal is necessary or desirable, it will be in this Firm's discretion to accept or decline representation on the appeal, and a new agreement will be negotiated regarding fees and costs.

Nothing in this Agreement and nothing in our statements to you should be construed as a promise or guarantee about the outcome of your matter or case. We cannot, for obvious reasons, make such a guarantee and expressly state that we have not done so. Any comments made by us about the outcome of your matter or case are expressions of our opinions only and do not constitute any guarantee.

3. Basis for Compensation:

This Firm has agreed to a retainer fee of $3,000. My hourly rate is $350.00 per hour. My paralegal hourly rate is $175.00 per hour. You are required to pay the retainer amount of $3,000 before services before any work is started. When the retainer is used, you are responsible for replenishing the retainer. Services rendered are charged based on the amount of time spent performing the task(s). Time records are created and maintained on an hourly/incremental basis for all services performed. Services include:

1. Legal Research.
2. Preparation of an Opinion Letter.
3. Telephonic and in-person conferences and all calls pertaining to representation.
4. Generating, reviewing and responding to E-mails and text messages.

Services are charged against the retainer amount. You are responsible for replenishing the retainer once the retainer amount is reduced to $1,000 by work completed on your case. The retainer does not include filing fees which are paid separately in advance. Therefore, you are responsible for ensuring that there are sufficient funds available in the retainer to pay for filing fees.

This Firm generally bills for all time expended in connection with a client's case in segments of 2/10th of an hour. It is extremely difficult to keep completely accurate time records for relatively brief services, such as telephone calls and review of text messages, e-mails and other correspondence. However, it has been my experience that telephone calls or correspondence takes approximately two-tenths (2/10) of an hour due to the thought process, file review and interruptive nature of these services. Accordingly, all text messages, e-mails, telephone calls and other review of communications between you and this Firm will be charged at a minimum rate of two-tenths (2/10) of an hour.

In the event that there is a basis for a request for attorney fees, such fees are requested and an award for attorney's fees is made by the court or an award of attorney's fees from the other party is reached by way of settlement discussions, this Firm shall be entitled to the greater of (1) the attorney's fees awarded by the court or via a stipulated agreement; or (2) the hourly fee as set forth above. The fees set out in this Agreement are not set by law and are negotiable. Your signing of this Retainer Agreement, however, will set the fees as indicated and will bind both parties to those amounts.

4. Costs:

You are fully responsible for all costs incurred undertaking your representation. These costs include, but are not necessarily limited to, court filing fees, process server's fees, messenger and delivery fees, deposition costs, expert witness fees (specifically the hiring of an expert), travel expenses at $0.30 per mile (attorney travel time will be billed at one half the attorney's regular hourly rate for travel 25 miles or more from our offices), investigation costs, document reproduction at $0.15 per page, long distance telephone charges, telex and fax charges at $1.00 per page transmitted or received, postage, and word processing charges. As a courtesy, this Firm may from time to time advance some of these minor costs and you will be billed for such advances. To the extent this Firm advances such costs on your behalf, it is understood that you will reimburse the Firm and hold the Firm harmless from liability for these costs. This Firm will attempt to obtain an estimate for any major expense prior to incurring such an expense so that we may clear it with you.

In the event it becomes necessary for this Firm to institute legal action to recover any amount due pursuant to the terms of this Attorney/Client Fee Agreement, the prevailing party in such action will be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in such action.

5. Billing Statements and Correspondence:

This Firm will send you periodic billing statements, usually monthly, addressed to you at the above-stated e-mail address or your residence address, indicating the current status of your account, both for services rendered and for costs advanced. The statements will show the date of each service performed and the time expended. The statement will also reflect the costs advanced by this Firm. Statements are payable immediately upon receipt.

In the event of any delay beyond thirty (30) days in the payment of a billing statement, unless special arrangements have been made with Ms. Oxley and confirmed in writing by this Firm, the then due balance thereon shall bear interest at the court rate of 10% per annum, calculated on a daily basis from the day upon which the statement was sent to you until the day that the payment is actually received in our office.

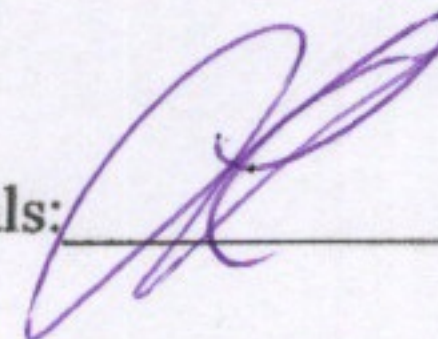

We expect you to pay invoices immediately upon receipt. If, upon your receipt of the statement, you have any questions about any charge set forth thereon, or any item of information contained therein, please promptly telephone or write to our office so that we may discuss these matters. We are committed to resolving billing issues in a timely manner. We do not expect you to pay for any charges which are found to have been billed incorrectly. Therefore, it is imperative that we resolve any misunderstandings, or errors, relating to your billing statement immediately. Any invoice charges that are not specifically disputed within fifteen (15) days of the date of invoice are deemed correct and ratified by you.

6. Withdrawal Provisions:

The attorney-client relationship is one of mutual trust, confidence and respect. Thus, you retain the right to discharge this Firm as your counsel at any time for any reason, in which case we ask to be so advised in writing. Likewise, this Firm retains the right to cease representing you, for any reason, ten (10) days after giving you notice of the Firm's decision to withdraw as counsel. You agree to sign all paperwork necessary to give effect to the withdrawal, including, but not limited to, signing a Substitution of Attorney.

Should you decide to discharge this Firm, or we withdraw for any reason, including, but not limited to your failure to follow settlement or other significant advice, your failure to provide us with requested information, your failure to inform us of any significant matters, or your failure to remain current on your fees and cost obligations as applicable, regardless of your financial circumstances, you will remain liable for all attorneys' fees and advanced costs owed by you as set out in the provisions in this Agreement, incurred prior to the withdrawal.

7. Settlement:

No settlement of Client's case will be made without Client's consent and written approval.

8. Right to Independent Advice:

You understand that you have the right to consult with another attorney of your own choosing before signing this Agreement.

9. Post-Judgment Services:

Some clients expect that there will be no further charges after the final hearing, or the final judgment is obtained. However, usually further work is necessary, such as preparation of the judgment or Findings and Order After Hearing. For example, in a custody/visitation, support, property division matters, the Court may order counsel for either party to prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing. In some cases, a copy of the transcript of the hearing is necessary to resolve any dispute over the orders made by the Court at the hearing. Therefore, fees and costs may continue to accrue for a period of time immediately after the final court action. You understand that you remain responsible for those fees and costs associated with post-judgment services rendered to you.

10. Concluding Our Representation:

Naturally, once this file has been closed, this Firm will not perform any services on your behalf concerning this matter. Thereafter, unless otherwise requested and agreed in writing, this Firm will not notify you of changes in the law which may affect you or your interests with respect to this matter.

This Agreement shall govern any additional work that this Firm is required or requested to perform on your behalf. In that event, this agreement shall apply prevailing rates for fees for professional services rendered by this office and applicable costs incurred for filing and service.

Additionally, at the conclusion of our representation, you will be billed a one-time charge of $.18 per page, for every page associated with this matter. This charge covers our costs to permanently generate an electronic copy of your file for permanent storage. Once the electronic copy has been generated, you may claim your original file for your records. Any file that is not claimed SHALL BE DESTROYED on the first-year anniversary of the conclusion of your matter.

The cost to retrieve your file from storage is $50.00. The cost to reproduce pages will be $0.15 per page. Although these rates are guaranteed for two years, they are subject to change.

II. Other Provisions:

You understand that appointments are required in order to see an Attorney, except in emergencies. If you fail to attend an appointment without prior, timely notice of cancellation, you will be charged a minimum of one-half (1/2) hour for missed appointments.

No change, waiver or modification of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by this Firm. This letter contains our entire Agreement concerning the services we will be performing and this Firm's compensation for such services and costs. This Firm makes no representations or promises other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement.

If any collection proceeding or legal actions are commenced to enforce any portion of this Agreement concerning the retainer, legal fees, costs, expenses or clients' monetary obligations, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable collection costs, attorneys fees, court costs, and other expenses of collection or litigation. The venue of any action involving this agreement shall be within the County of San Diego, California.

We have not been retained to provide you with tax advice concerning this matter, including without limitation the deduction of costs associated with litigation or the taxability of any potential recovery you may receive. Therefore, you should consult a tax advisor(s) as soon as possible regarding any tax consequences associated with this suit.

12. Client's Understanding of Consent:

If this Agreement correctly sets forth our understanding and agreement, sign on the line above your name at the close of this letter, indicating your approval of the terms that have been set forth and return the original to this Firm. The copy is for your files. This agreement will not take effect, and this Firm will have no obligation to provide legal services, until you return the signed original of this agreement and return it to this Firm.

We appreciate the confidence you have expressed by asking this Firm to represent you. We will use our best efforts at all times to justify that confidence. If at any time you have questions concerning this agreement, legal procedures or the progress of your case, please do not hesitate to contact our office. We look forward to working with you.
