Lady Butterfly

Gj 5

(B)

Lady Butterfly, can I hold you still?
On my fingers without crushing your little wings
I could close my hand make sure you never leave but I'll break your heart & you'll break mine to me.

(B)

Lady Butterfly, do you still like me?
when I open my hand I will see I should trust that you once wanted to be here but I won't know that if I don't set you free.

(B)

Lady Butterfly, wanna make a deal?
You can fly other hands than my own it might hurt me twice a day three times or more but the price I pay is worth when you are back home.

Chorus
Let me try, what everybody tries let me know, what everybody knows
That you want to be alone, like a butterfly that I can't really hold.
(Un) (NGRO)

Chorus

1. I had to let you fly by yourself ^{Em} everyday
2. that was my only option. ^{Em}
3. I tried to hold you tight back ^{Em} but I learned by mistake
now ^C you're like a butterfly ^{Em}
now ^C you're like a butterfly. ^{Em}

Lady Butterfly, the wind blows hard today though I couldn't protect you with my hands you were telling me that I was just a friend and I heard those words right before you left.

Lady Butterfly, it's been a while since then and I wanted to ~~hold~~ see you once again I searched everywhere I travelled all the land you were never mine and now I understand.

Chorus

1. I tried to hold you tight but I failed ^{Em}
2. I learned to let you fly by yourself ^{Em}
3. Now you're like a butterfly ^{Em}
Now you're like a butterfly ^{Em}
