

Sample Ideas For Getting Started

If you are feeling like you don't know where to start, why not try one of these? If you are married, you can include your spouse. These all involve getting out of the home. See how many you can do! Remember, it is the sincerity of the prayer that counts. They can be specific or more general as you pray for each person. Just start out by asking God to give you His heart for those you pray for.

Go to a restaurant. Look around at the other tables. Offer prayers throughout the time you are dining. You may find it encourages deeper conversation with your dining companion too.

If you are at a restaurant with a group of friends or co-workers, mentally "go around the table" and offer a prayer for each person.

Date night is a great way to spend some time praying for family and friends. Most people in our families have struggles, so as they come up in conversation, offer prayers for them.

Find a church that has Adoration and go. Offer intercession for anyone that the Spirit puts on your heart. Jesus desires all to be saved. Join your heart to His in offering prayers for them.

A great way to pray for people you don't know is at a public event. Everyone there has a need for Jesus to be more in their lives. Pray for them that they first find peace with Jesus.

For those a bit adventurous, why not find a cemetery, and pray for the people buried there? Pray that at their hour of death, they accepted all the grace & mercy Jesus offered them, and that their time of purgation is done.