

Colours of Nozolo :)

A Special Story
for
A true
SuperHero

It was a sunny spring day
at Nelson Mandela Children's Hospital.
And Noxolo had taken a break from singing with her beautiful light voice to create the first of many sketch books filled with her SuperHeroes.

It started with a plain pink sheet.
And a set of crayons.

Flash and his friends
had popped in to draw up a hero or two:
as inspirational posters.

TO INFINITY...

AND BEYOND!!

Believe you can and you're halfway there

Everyday may not be good

But there is something
Good in everyday ♡

You've overcome so much

And made it this far because you're strong

Nox finished her first picture.
It was WONDERWOMAN

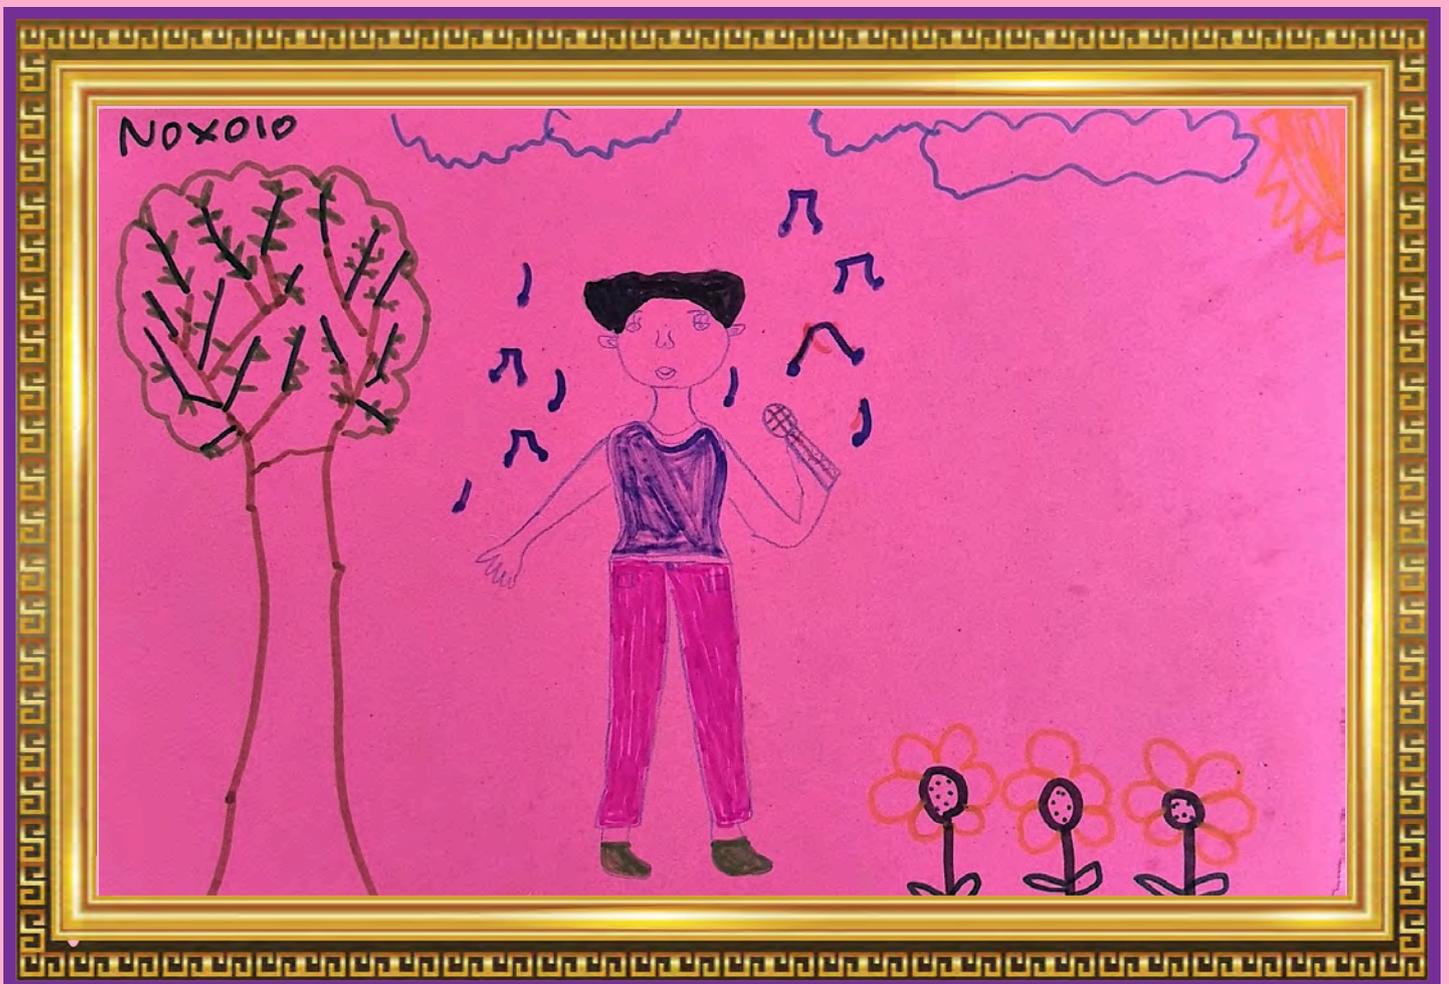

Noxolo ♡

And quickly started the next:
Noxolo singing with her perfect
sweet voice.

Because:

"I AM MY OWN SUPERHERO!"

Not just a SuperHero
But a SUPERSTAR.

Flash and Friends made more pictures-
About Stars
And Love

Keep your eyes
On the stars,
and your feet
On the Ground

Stars like you should always keep smiling!

I Know Love Is Real

BECAUSE I EXIST

And I'm Full Of It

YOU'VE COME SO FAR!
BE PROUD!

EVERY DAY IS ANOTHER DAY WITH LOVE WAITING FOR YOU!
KEEP GOING!!

And Noxolo kept drawing in piles of thick sketch books
From the quiet of her ward
(When her friends weren't visiting)

these are just some of the drawings by Nox:

Not just creatures
But inspirational posters as well
