Legion Commanders Message

I have to start out with one big thank you to all who joined in to make it such a great Veterans Day! That's what makes our Legion family so great. Thank you to Stewartville Schools for invitations to celebrate our day. The energy the kids give us keeps us going year after year.

The Veterans dinner was great again this year due to, again, volunteers from our community. Thanks to all.

Again, I close with I am so proud to be your Commander.

Ron

SAL Commanders Message

Hello Legion Family, winter is back and the holidays are in sight. Son's will have no meeting this month as we be having the potluck Christmas meal on the 3rd Monday in the back hall. Steak and shrimp dinner is the 13th if any one can help out. Get out and ring the bells if you can or try to make someone's family a bit more blessed this season. Merry Christmas post 164! The SAL will be doing Taco Tuesday on December 30th.

Thank you Commander Todd

Auxiliary President Message

Greetings!

At our November meeting, the Auxiliary held a draping of the Charter in honor of member Olive Peterson. We remember her with gratitude for her service.

Our annual Halloween party was a great success—143 children and 92 parents enjoyed a hot dog meal, and kids received treat bags. Thank you to everyone who helped decorate, serve, and clean up.

Thank you as well to the Auxiliary members who attended Veterans Day programs at the Stewartville Middle/High School and Bear Cave Intermediate School. We delivered a veteran wall hanging and treat bags to veterans at the Stewartville Care Center, along with patriotic cookies for all residents. Members also provided treat bags to veterans at the Minnesota Veterans Home in Preston.

We voted to make a financial donation to the Little Food Pantry, which supports families in need in the Stewartville and Racine area. In addition to this contribution, a collection bin has been placed near the Legion kitchen through the end of December for Legion Family members who wish to donate items. Auxiliary members will distribute the collected goods to the six pantry locations throughout December. We especially encourage donations of high-need essentials such as Kleenex, toilet paper, paper towels, shampoo, conditioner, feminine hy-

- The world's first speeding ticket was issued in 1896— for going 8mph.
- The average modern car has over 30,000 parts in it.
- Come one, Come all...Monday December 15th, the Auxiliary will be having a Pot Luck for the entire Legion from 6-7:30pm
- Some eagles build nests weighing over a ton
- Eagles dive at 200 mph-making them one of the fastest birds on the planet.

giene products, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, hand soap, dish soap, laundry detergent, and all-purpose cleaners.

Auxiliary members will be ringing bells for the Salvation Army at Fareway Foods all day on Wednesday, December 3. Thank you to all who volunteered.

Join us at the Legion on Saturday, December 6th from 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. for our annual Winterfest Holiday Bazaar! New this year will be Santa Claus visiting! Bring the kids for a special meet-and-greet and photos with Santa from 10 a.m. – noon. Come enjoy a festive day of holiday shopping and cross some gifts off your list — we have a great list of vendors.

Finally, join us for the Holiday Potluck at the Legion on Monday, December 15, from 6–7:30 p.m. and bring a dish to pass. There will be no December Auxiliary meeting, and the potluck will be in place of it.

Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and may we all remember those who serve this holiday season.

Molly Schmidt
Stewartville Auxiliary President
