Legion Commanders Message

It is the season to be thankful....family time for sure as we roll through the holiday season!

I give thanks for the wonderful year of serving as your commander. It is so nice to be a small part of our post that is filled with volunteers and employees who make things happen. I look forward to the new year and the success of our post for 2025.

Again I close with I am so proud to serve as your commander.

Ron

SAL Commanders Message

HAPPY NEW YEARS LEGION FAMILY!!

A new year dawns for us. Some have many goals and some have none. So let us have a little every month. January has us going to the cancer telethon supporting our LEGION, VFW and Auxiliary with a generous donation to fund research against these diseases. So get your membership current as not to lose any member benefits. Let's have our greatest year yet!

Thank you all!

Commander Todd

Unit 164 ALA News

Wishing everyone a Happy New Year. We will resume our regular monthly meetings, January 20th at 6:30.

Please read the District 1 Newsletter. It has valuable information about how to write your committee reports! The Newsletter also includes dates of upcoming events.

Thank you for your support of ALA Unit activities as well as supporting your Post home.

For Service not Self,
Nancy Anderson - Unit 164 Auxiliary
President
