Legion Commanders Message

Another month has slipped by! They say that is a sign of age. We're all looking forward to spring and all things growing and no winter coat.

We have Memorial Day approaching, so I will be reaching out to all the guys that wear the uniforms. Some have never worn them, so hopefully we can have a good response to our calls.

Some still have not gotten their dues sent in. On the brighter side of things I, with several others, had breakfast with our National Commander at the Eyota Legion. Thank you for hosting the event.

I will close with a thank you for letting me serve as your commander.

Ron
