Legion Commanders Message

Again, time flies by! Another month and hopefully winter is over.

A special thanks to all the volunteers who helped with the Easter egg hunt. It was such a cold, windy day, but I don't think the kids cared. The smiles made it worth it!

Thanks to all the volunteers who make our fish fries the best ever. And thanks to Bill for all his work to make this possible. He said to make them all you can eat and the people will come; he wasn't kidding, and I heard only compliments.

Stewartville is such a wonderful community and again, I am so proud to be your Commander.
Ron

SAL Commanders Message

Hello Legion Family!

May is here and with that we get busy. Sons, we have tip night at Pizza Ranch Wednesday night May 6th. Looking for a good turn out. This month is officers elections so put your names in and challenge someone for a new position. Car shows start so we might have a table for getting new members and promotions for the 250th anniversary of our country. A big congratulations to The Auxiliary for pushing across the finish line for the handicap doors. Let's make this Summer the greatest it can be! Thank you All! Commander Todd

Auxiliary President Message

I would like to extend a sincere thank you to all our members who supported the Operation Open Doors Fundraiser on April 18th. It was a tremendous success thanks to the combined efforts of our Auxiliary members, Sons, and Post members. Because of this collective effort, we are hopeful to see the installation of electronic handicapped doors completed in 2026.

Poppy Day is coming up on May 22nd. You should be receiving information in the mail from First District President Wanda Prescher. On that day, Auxiliary members will be stationed at Fareway Foods and North Casey's collecting donations to support this important cause. Please take a moment to reflect on the meaning behind Poppy Day and consider contributing.

We have one remaining meeting scheduled for May 18th before we break for the summer months. Meetings will resume in September.

Last, we have commemorative t-shirts available for purchase at the Legion in celebration of America's 250th birthday. Shirts are $25. Be sure to stop in and get yours while supplies last so you can wear it proudly this Fourth of July!

Thank you again for your continued support and dedication.

Molly Schmidt
