

Building Bridges

Connecting Past, Present, and Future Generations

Kevin Perry '18 Sergeant-at-Arms

Kevin received his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Delaware State University in 2018 and Master of Business Administration degree with a concentration in Business Analytics in 2019. During his tenure he served on several committees and held leadership positions such as President of the Accounting club and National Associate of Black Accountants (NABA).

While earning his MBA, he worked as a Graduate Assistant for the DSU Football team and a Resident Assistant. In 2017, Kevin served on Student Government Association as 13th Mr. DSU, becoming the first student - athlete to be elected to this position.

Mr. Perry is the President/founder of a non-profit titled, "Creating Exceptional Opportunities," which is a program geared to help high school students prepare for college by teaching them a myriad of professional, networking, and brand building skills through seminars, workshops, and mentoring. Currently, Mr. Perry is a resident of North Carolina where is employed as a management consultant, working for PricewaterhouseCoopers, global accounting firm in Financial Services. He travels all over to clients, identifying problems and implementing solutions for Retail and Commercial banks.

While in North Carolina, Kevin continuously engages within the community by leading acts of service and racial equity. He is a coach and mentor to rising professionals about the benefits of intrapreneurship, entrepreneurship, and overall financial advice. He is a certified tax preparer and previously worked for financial and accounting companies such as Barclays, SB & Company, and KPMG.

Kevin is native of Alexandria, Virginia. He graduated from T.C. Williams High School and became a first generation college graduate. In April, Kevin was the recipient of TBS's first ever HBCU Cashout Contest, earning $25,000 toward his student loans. He aspires to become a Chief Executive Officer of a Fortune 500 company and become the catalyst of financial freedom, financial knowledge, and financial empowerment for all individuals.