Chapter Monthly Meetings:

Zoom: 9548061844 Password: 3798

Over the past four years the DSUAA Florida Alumni Chapter has embraced and adopted the DSU Aviation Program. Aviation is an extremely unique field and even more so at an HBCU. The Chapter is extremely proud of the opportunity to partner with the faculty, staff and most importantly the Aviation students. In addition, some Chapter members have personally reached out to some students establishing one on one relationships.

Prior to the pandemic the Chapter met quarterly for face to face meetings at strategic locations such as Tampa, Dania Beach, Orlando, St Augustine and Daytona Beach as well as monthly zoom and conference call meetings. The Chapter's gatherings at popular Florida resorts began on Friday evenings with a meet and greet dinner/ cocktail hour, Saturday all day meeting, Saturday night dinner and closing with farewell breakfast on Sunday morning. These weekend gatherings helped the Chapter form a cohesive bond of team building, friendship, and fun while getting away for a weekend break.

The Sunshine Chapter has committed and budgeted a portion of its fundraising efforts specifically for Aviation student assistance and annually lend support to:

- ü Check Ride Fees
- ü FAA Testing and Certification
- ü Headsets & Various Equipment
- ü Flight Lab Fees
- ü Flight Bags
- ü Book Scholarships

- May 9th
- June 13th

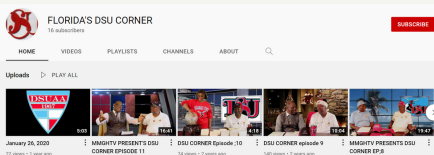

THE MEETINGS ARE THE SECOND
MONDAY OF EVERY MONTH

The Chapter was formed in 2014 with sixteen charter members and has grown to reach a high of forty-five and adopted the nickname 'The Sunshine Chapter'. Out of the Chapter meetings, the chapter has developed innovative strategies for short and long term growth of, branding, uniqueness/ creativity and stability.

The Florida Sunshine has resumed its regular monthly meetings coming out of the pandemic this fall with new, innovative, and aggressive plans for growth, fundraising, and continued support of DSU's Aviation students and programs. Hopefully in 2022 the chapter will have face to face activity which is on the table for discussion and exploration.

The Chapter's very popular video 'The DSU Corner' has resulted in twelve produced episodes and the Chapter is planning to head back to the studio very soon to continue that popular production. Please follow on YouTube.

Kent County Chapter

November was "National Hospice Awareness Month" and the Kent County Chapter has supported this compassionate effort for numerous years by donating bountiful "Thanksgiving Feast Boxes" to twelve (12) "needy families" selected by the Delaware Hospice Organization. The organization and the selected families each year express their heartfelt appreciation for our efforts.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, the Kent County Chapter has decided to donate a monetary donation to the Delaware Hospice Organization's "Uninsured-Patient Fund." Through this compassionate, year-round effort the agency is able to cover the cost of much needed medicines and medical supplies for the clients who are uninsured or underinsured.

Donations will be accepted through December 31st. Please contact Chapter President Dr. Geraldine Jones at gerryej@aol.com for information on how to donate.

DSU Lady Hornets in Championship Game

The Delaware State University women's volleyball team were all smiles and happy to participate in the MEAC Championship game at Howard University in Washington, DC on Sunday, November 21, 2021. Game time was 8:00pm.

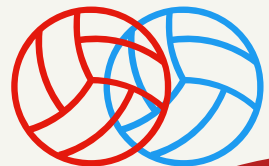

On Sunday evening, November 21, 2021 at 8:00pm the Delaware State University volleyball team played in the MEAC championship game against the number one seed Howard University. DSU, the number two seed, was vying for its first championship in thirty five years. It was not to be, as the Hornets won the first set, but lost three consecutive sets to end their championship hopes. The Lady Hornets shared the regular season title with Howard. DSU and HU had identical records at the end of the season, but HU was named the top seed based on a tiebreaker formula. DSU and HU played each other once in the regular season, splitting the contests. DSU won the first game 3-1 on September 24, and Howard won the second game 3-0 on October 26. At that time DSU had a school-record 16 match win streak.

DSU began its championship quest by defeating number seven seed Morgan State University on Friday, November 19. The victory was number 25, which added to the school record for wins. The Hornets also recorded their 20th shutout of the season, also a team record. On the second day of the tournament, DSU defeated number three seed Coppin State University 3-1 to advance to the finals. It was victory number 26, one more addition to the school record. Coppin State University was the MEAC Preseason favorite.

DSU finished its season with a 26-4 record. They participated in the championship game for the first time since 2010. They set team records for consecutive wins (16), home victories (13), shutout wins (20) and regular season non-conference wins (912). The 2021 MEAC Women's Volleyball Tournament was played at Burr Gymnasium on the campus of Howard University.

NEW BOOK RELEASE

A new Book
by: Bernard W. Carr

DSU alumni be on the watch for a new book on the market, and hopefully the Best Seller's List. The Rev. Dr. Geraldine J. Jones, Ph.D, held a book signing event to promote her new book entitled, "Beside the Golden Door". The event was held on Saturday, October 30, 2021 at Luther Village of Dover Apartments, 1101 Babb Dr., Bldg.#1000, Dover, Delaware from 4:00pm-6:00pm. also, in attendance, to help her celebrate were members from the Transformation African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. As an author, this will make five books that Dr. Jones has written and had published. They include, "From Our Hearts to Yours", "Dear Brittany", "From my Heart to Yours", "I'm Doing Alright for an Old Lady, and "Beside the Golden Door. As a matter of fact, when one asks Dr. Jones how she is feeling, for years she has always responded, "not bad for an old lady", the title of one of her books.

Beside the Golden Door tells the dreams and travels of migrant families along the East Coast. One family is central to the tales spun of life on labor camps. Their humility is the focus of fascinating dynamics experienced daily in an unpredictable existence. The novel depicts one family who, in the middle of their travels, holds on to their dreams as they overcome the obstacles that confront them. The author upholds two of these wayfarers as characters to remember. The reader will enjoy the candor and down-to-earth dialogue. One might even transpose and find themselves into the characterizations.

On the occasion of her fifth book, Dr. Jones responds, "Beside the Golden Door, the first book that I even dreamed of writing, tells the tale of the migration of farm laborers on the east coast. Some sixty years ago, the idea of this book was birthed and now sixty years later, it became my fifth book....which was truly a labor of empathy, compassion, and love."

Rev. Dr. Geraldine J. Jones, Ph.D, a native of Seaford, Delaware, is a 1961 graduate of Delaware State College (now University). She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology. In addition, Dr. Jones is a graduate of Central Michigan University, and Capella University, from where she earned her PhD education. She received a Master of Divinity from Palmer Theological Seminary in Wynnewood, Pennsylvania. Dr. Jones is affiliated with more than twenty-five professional, civic, church, and community organizations, which include Who's Who Among Black Americans and Who's Who in the World of Women. She is a Golden Life Member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and currently serves as President of the Delaware State University Alumni Association, Inc-Kent County Chapter.

A retired educator, Dr. Jones has spent years writing as a hobby. She has written skits, poems, and other dramatic themes for family, church, friends, organizations, and schools. A soloist, motivational speaker, workshop leader/organizer/planner, liturgist, poet, and writer, she has been published in a poetry anthology and several other journals. Other titles for Dr. Jones include, Preacher, Christian Educator, Biblical Scholar, and Humanitarian.

Dr. Jones signed numerous copies of her new book for family, friends, neighbors, and parishioners. The building was decorated in her sorority colors of "crimson and cream" by Mrs. Shayla Floyd, catered by Carla Humpries Taylor, and photographed by All in Photography.
