

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

I'm not robot!

History of alora confraternity

Who is the founder of alora sealord. History of alora sealord. History of alora.

There are several types of cultism in Nigeria. Their symbols represent what they stand for. At times, members willingly or forcefully tattoo these symbols on themselves. Cultism is popular among today's youths who seek easy and quick money and riches.A person in a black jacket and scary white mask. Photo: pexels.com, @Vlado Pitbullgrif (modified by author)Source: UGCThe world is aware of cultism in Nigeria because social media users and the mainstream media associate several viral murder cases and massacres with cults thriving in universities and secondary schools. For instance, the Akwa Ibom State government alone discovered 51 cults and societies in secondary schools in March 2020.What is cultism and types of cultism in NigeriaCULTISM DEFINITION: According to the Oxford Dictionary, cultism is a religious or social group whose beliefs are secret, individualistic, and esoteric.

Cultism involves carrying out some ritualistic practices. Cultists share common objectives and ideas known or unknown to society, but some leaders hide their intentions from members. Here are the main characteristics of cultism:It is a spiritual or religious convention.It is a secret practice.A group of individuals practice the belief.Its policies are unknown to the general public.It has an impact on the lives of individuals.Its people have a common value.Most youths, especially university students, fall into the cultism trap because of lust for power, riches, and prestige. These organizations commission them to kill and engage in other heinous crimes. They lured members into believing this would give them supernatural abilities to achieve their goals.Young idealistic men started the confraternity system in Nigeria in 1952 during the last years of British colonial rule. They protested against notions of elitism by middle-class Nigerians and were not violent. Today, some groups are more violent than others, but not all members commit crimes.Some Nigerian confraternities hide their symbols and keep the information among their members, while other cults do not make their signs a secret. Check out the following signs and symbols of cultism in Nigeria:The National Associations of Sea Dogs' symbol. Photo: @arise.tvSource: UGCThe first cultism movement in Nigeria. Nobel Prize-winning author Wole Soyinka and his friends from the University of Ibadan in Oyo State (Aig-Imoukhuede, Pius Olegbe, Ralph Opara, Nat Oyelola and Olumuyiwa Awe) formed the group in 1952. They later called themselves the Sea Dogs.

They had three objectives:To Abolish convention. To revive the age of chivalry.To end tribalism and elitism.A group split from the Pyrates in the late 1960s to form a new community known as Secret Cults. Wole Soyinka described today's confraternities as vile, evil groups. He is, however, still a member of the Pyrates, which is dedicated to humanitarian and charitable endeavours.The Sea Dogs is a controversial secret cult in the Nigerian University System. They have been linked to crimes but also help society, e.g. summoning masses to join the prostate cancer awareness campaign in 2021.The cult's symbol comprised a skull, two cross-bones, and an anchor. They fight convention (an agreement between states covering particular matters) and tribalism and support knighthood and humanistic ideas/partnerships. The group's hey days ended when the Buccaneers split from them. As a result, the Pyrates' leadership moved out of campuses in 1984 to distance the group from violence. It no longer recruits students.The symbol for Buccaneers Confraternity. Photo: @vk.comSource: UGCBolaji Carew led a group that was expelled from Pyrate Confraternity in 1972. They formed the Buccaneers (also called the National Associations of Sea Lords) and became more powerful than their mother cult. Many cults exist in Nigeria because students who never met Buccaneers' high academic and intellectual standards preferred to create their own organizations. However, their symbols and ceremonies still resemble the Seadogs'. Meanwhile, the Seadogs thrive because some students join the group for fear of being harmed by rivalry cults like the Black Axe and Pyrate Confraternity. Members of the Sea Lords call themselves Fine boys, Ban Boys, Alora, Bucketmen, Lords, etc., and some of this cult's beliefs and sayings are:No Price, No Pay.No brothers in the wood.No laughing on board.Blood for blood.Let the devil that leads you guide you.3. Black AxeThe Black Axe symbol. Photo: @faiyedeSource: FacebookBlack Axe is a feared confraternity in Nigeria. Some students at the University of Benin in Benin City formed it in 1976 to fight oppression against Blackman (students) in universities. It is believed that the Black Axe founders were runaways from the Neo-black Movement of Africa (an organization in South Africa). They fought apartheid in South Africa, escaped to Nigeria for safety, and brought that notion to this country. Black Axe's symbol is the axe, and members call themselves Aye, Axe-men, Seven (7), or Amigos. Here are some of their beliefs and sayings:The Blackman will be freed with an axe.No f*ck ups.Forgiveness is a sin.Don't betray your brother in the hood.Obey before complaining or Abeyance.He who price must pay.4. Supreme Vikings ConfraternityThe Supreme Vikings Confraternity's symbol. Photo: @Supreme Vikings confraternity - S.V.CSource: FacebookSome former members of the Buccaneers at the University of Port Harcourt formed the Supreme Vikings Confraternity in 1982. The group was originally called De Norsemen Club of Nigeria. This movement's symbol is SVC (two crossed axes and a boat), and members call themselves Aro-mates, Adventurers, or Vultures. Some of their beliefs and sayings are:Blood on the high sea.Songs of Hojas.Never hang a leg.Even in the face of death.A Supreme Eiye Confraternity's logo. Photo: @Supreme Eiye Confraternity EiyeenPerchSource: FacebookThe University of Ibadan's students founded Supreme Eiye Confraternity (also called Air Lords or HABA-KRIER) in 1963. It was established to positively impact its members' social-political, cultural, physical and mental development and was indifferent to other conventional cult groups.The movement's motto is "there are no enemies, there are no friends; just a confraternity, and discipline." Their symbol is a landing eagle, and members call themselves Fliers, Airforce, Airlords, etc.Debay Na debt logo. Photo: @klansmenkonfraternitySource: FacebookDebay Na debt borrowed ideas from a cult in California, and members worship a demon called Ogor. The demon's symbol is an image of a human skull believed to be of a mad person. Debay Na debt is also called the Eternal Fraternity Order of Legion Consortium. It borrowed ideas from a cult in California, and members call themselves Klansmen (Klansman in singular). They perform an oath to prove their loyalty and believe their mission puts them above all other types of cultism in Nigeria. Here are Klansmen's sayings:The affairs of a klansman before any other thing in life.What concerns a klansman concern all klansmen.The status of other cult members is not considered or relevant.Oath of secrecy abides by all members.Peaceful man in a deadly mood. disagree to agree.The Clao-Sons symbol. Photo: @faiyedeSource: FacebookThe group is also called the Family Fraternity or Cosanoyra Mafia Confraternity. The Clao-Sons was formed in 1978 at the University of Ilorin in Kwara State but began operating in Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, in 1980. Their ideologies originated from the Italian and American mafia. Members attend secret parties, gamble, date girls, keep secrets, and believe in revenge against oppression. They call themselves Maf or Mafiansand chant these sayings:It is better for a b*astard (non-initiate) to chance/provoke a member than a numbered-b*astard (members of other cults).Retaliation after oppression.Secrety is where our power lies.Names of female cultism in Nigeria and their symbolsFounders of female cults are usually university students. Since most of them are girlfriends or colleagues of members of the secret cults, their ideologies are grounded on the men's brotherhoods' beliefs and missions. Female cultism in Nigeria is about women joining hands to achieve a sacred goal or other special objectives. They usually meet in forests or remote locations to perform rituals, sing and chant spells and invocations. Many women have admitted to being members of the following cults and participating in their activities:8. Kegite clubKegite club's logo. Photo: @excesskariabilitySource: FacebookKegite club is among the few women's movements still thriving today. While some people think it is a cult, others consider it a social group because it does not follow the principles of wealth, power, popularity, and revenge. Instead, Kegite is a sociocultural movement supporting unity in diversity and promoting regeneration of the mind, soul, and body after a tedious day. Members are very tolerant, believe all ethnic groups are equal and stay true to themselves. Unlike cults, Kegite's ideology has no negative consequences (such as fear, deaths, crimes, and loss of important moral values in society).

The symbol of this movement is close to nature, and it is a green palm. 9. Black Bra Confraternity (Axe Queens)The Black Bra symbol. Photo: @NEO-BLACK-QUEEN-of-Africa-aka-Axe-QueenBlack-Bra-223799758176467Source: FacebookThe Black Bra Confraternity also calls itself the Neo Black Queen of Africa. It is among the top women's cults in Nigeria. The group encouraged development for women of colour, and members wear black from head to toe.10. Daughters of JezebelThe name Jezebel written on a yellow background. Photo: created by the authorSource: UGCThe Daughters of Jezebel is among the most popular female confraternity in Nigeria. Members communicate in a coded language. However, little is known about this group because their activities are top secret.A list of the types of cultism in NigeriaThere are more women cults in Nigeria but are unknown to the people. Some have made headlines, but the media is yet to reveal much about them. Here is a list of cults in Nigeria:Pyrate Confraternity (The National Associations of Sea Dogs)Buccaneers Confraternity (The National Associations of Sea Lords)Black AxeSupreme Vikings ConfraternitySupreme Eiye Confraternity or Air LordsDebay Na debtClao-Sons or mafia cultismRed SeaBlack Cobra of IfeFriends FraternityMgbangba BrothersSnow MenThe Blood SpotFemale cultsKegite clubBlack Bra Confraternity (Axe Queens)Daughters of JezebelBlue AngelsMarine GirlsDaughters of the KnightThe Royal QueensGolden DaughtersLady of RoseWoman BrassierQueensPink LadyWhite AngelAmazonSisterhood of DarknessThe Knights of the AristosWhat are the consequences of cultism?Here are some negative effects of cultism in Nigeria:Breakdown of law and order.Premature deaths of innocent victims and youths who are cult members.Disruption of academic activities.Violence and social instability.Drug addiction and related health problems.Disorientation of societal values.What are the causes of cultism?Here are some of the reasons people join cults in Nigeria:Youths succumb to peer pressure.Some people need cults to help the seeking revenge on their enemies.Some people are looking for protection from their rivals.Cultism is a lifestyle for some people.Who is the founder of EIYE Confraternity?The University of Ibadan students Tunde Aluko, Goke Adediji, Bayo Adenubi, Dele Nwakpele, Bode Fadase, Kayode Oke and Bode Sowunmi formed the movement in 1965.What is the solution to cultism?Here are four suggestions for stopping cultism in Nigeria:The government should invest in public awareness initiatives regarding the evils of cultism.The education system should teach the evils and dangers of cultism from primary schools to the university level.The government should pass stern laws and severe punishments against cultism.Government should improve the standard of living in society.There are different types of cultism in Nigeria. Some are exclusively for men or women, while others have consist of all genders. Most groups were formed to fight for human rights and impact society positively. However, some deviated from their original reason for existence and are now promoting violence, crime, and destructive agendas. READ ALSO: Top 10 dangerous religious cults in the worldLegit.ng delved deeper into religious cultism in the world. Scientology, the Unification Church, and the Children of God are among the top ten most dangerous religious cults today.Tom Cruise, Leah Remini, Elisabeth Moss and other celebrities confessed that they left the Scientology church. Find out what happens in this religious group and other religious cults. Source: Legit.ng Alora Confraternity, also known as the Buccaneers Confraternity, is a secret society founded in 1952 at the University of Ibadan (UI), Nigeria. It is one of the four major secret societies in Nigerian universities, the others being the Pyrates Confraternity, the Supreme Eiye Confraternity, and the National Association of Seadogs. Alora Confraternity is a social organization that promotes academic excellence, community service, and leadership development. In recent years, there have been calls to ban Alora confraternity and other secret societies in Nigerian universities. Whether Alora Confraternity is a positive or negative force in Nigerian society is debated. However, there is no doubt that it is a powerful organization that has significantly impacted the lives of many Nigerian students, both positively and negatively. There are many reasons why Nigerian students join Alora Confraternity. Some of the reasons include: Alora confraternity provides its members with a sense of belonging and identity. It can be a way for students to feel like they are part of something larger than themselves, and to connect with other students who share their interests and values. Alora confraternity can provide its members with protection and support. In a country where violence and crime are common, Alora confraternity can provide its members with a sense of security. It can also provide members with financial and other forms of assistance.

Alora confraternity can provide its members with social and economic opportunities. Members of Alora confraternity often have access to jobs, scholarships, and other forms of assistance that would not be available to them otherwise. Alora confraternity can provide its members with a sense of purpose and meaning. It can be a way for students to make a difference in the world, and to feel like they are part of something important. It is important to note that Alora Confraternity is a controversial organization. It has been linked to violence, crime, and other negative activities. However, it is also important to remember that not all members of Alora confraternity are involved in these activities. Some members of Alora confraternity are simply looking for a sense of belonging, protection, and support. Cultism is a serious problem in Nigeria, and it can have devastating consequences for those who are involved. Some of the dangers of cultism include: Cultists are often involved in violence, including murder, rape, and assault. Cultists are also often involved in crime, such as robbery, drug trafficking, and extortion. Cultism can cause serious psychological damage, including depression, anxiety, and post-traumatic stress disorder.

Cultists are often ostracized from society, and it can be difficult for them to find jobs, housing, and other forms of support. Cult members are at a higher risk of death than non-members due to violence, accidents, and suicide. If you are considering joining a cult, please think carefully about the risks involved. Cultism is not a harmless way to make friends or have fun. It is a dangerous and destructive lifestyle that can ruin your life. If you are already involved in a cult, there is help available. Many organizations can help you leave a cult, and many people have been through similar experiences and can offer support. This content is curated from different online sources. There is no copyright infringement intended. If you think any content needs correction or your copyright is infringed, kindly message us via [lanrenews\[protected\]](mailto:lanrenews[protected]), and our Editorial board will review your complaint.