

OVERVIEW OF WHO WE ARE

We here at Dramatically Incorrect strive to give back to the community. We are a full dance and theater company located in the heart of downtown Lowell. We have an amazing team of instructors that have so much talent to offer everyone. Our prices are geared to everyone's best prices in the area. We aim to help the young and old get off the streets and have a place they can call home and family. The team works hard to make sure to use the newest training and techniques. Some of the classes we offer are:

- Tap
- Tumbling
- Jazz
- Lyrical

- Voice

and much more. Dramatically Incorrect also produces multiple theatrical performances annually including both musical and plays. Our sets are professional, we used full orchestrations for music and present some of the finest costumes in area theatre.

THE MISSION

Dramatically Incorrect Theater Group & Dance Company promotes young and old artists through good amateur community theater productions, while maintaining the dignity and standards of the theatre community.

Dramatically Incorrect nurtures and encourages all artists and provides a space where they can thrive, grow, take risks, and make bold choices. We do not turn away students or participants due to their inability to pay. We are here to encourage, enliven and support our community.
