Cast Biographies

Steve Pinner

as Sidney Bruhl

Steve Pinner (Sidney) is making his second appearance with DITGDC. He appeared as Rex in Stephen Murray's "Pets in Quarantine" earlier this year. Other credits include Peter in Stephen Murray's "Making Scents", Frederick Fleet in "Titanic", and Larry in "Company".

Steve is grateful to be able to continue participating in community theatre during this time.

Michelle Kelly

as Myra Bruhl

Michelle Kelly (Myra) This is her 6th show with the company aside from Cabarets, virtual shows and virtual Cabarets. She has most recently been seen in "The Green Room: A College Musical" (Divonne), "Noises Off" (Poppy), "Clue: On Stage" (Cook), "Twisted" (Bird/ Ensemble), and "Pets in Quarantine" (Annabelle).

As a Thriller enthusiast she's most looking forward to performing in something other than a Musical and straight comedy.

To the cast and crew she wants to thank them for all the hard work they have put into it including the stage crew for putting together an amazing stage set up. She also wishes everyone good luck and break legs.

Connor Forbes

as Clifford Anderson

Connor Forbes (Clifford) is excited to be a part of Deathtrap. He has been previously seen on screen with DITGDC in Twisted, Noises Off, and The Green Room. Other credits include Mamma Mia, Beauty and the Beast, High Fidelity, Flashdance, and The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged). Connor would like to thank everyone at DITGDC for allowing him to continue his passion, and his girlfriend Julia, for being his biggest fan.

Cast Biographies

Kaiti Maddox

as Helga ten Dorp

Kaiti Maddox (Helga) is excited to make her semi-in-person debut with DITGDC after appearing in Zoom productions of “Pets in Quarantine” (Nefertiti), and “The Magic of Zoom” (Malco). Kaiti has been busy with virtual productions since quarantine started, appearing in “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” (Snug), “Verily A New Hope” (Red Leader), and “Bangin’ The Bell” (Candyvine Ballinger). Former in person credits include The Bird Woman in “Mary Poppins” and Mrs. Potts in “Beauty and the Beast”.

Kaiti would like to thank her partner, Lex Blair, for driving her to rehearsal, getting her Wendy’s, and always believing in her. She hopes you enjoy the show, ja?

Michael Godin

as Porter Milgrim

Mic Godin (Porter) is proud to be back on stage with Dramatically Incorrect for his 7th production, not including cabarets, virtual cabarets or short virtual shows. Some of his favorite shows to date have been Laughter On The 23rd Floor with Barre Players in Barre, Ma, Oliver! and Little Women at New Players Theatre Guild in Fitchburg, MA and Clue! with DITGDC. Mic wants to say “break legs” to the cast AND crew of “Deathtrap!” Here’s to many more incredible years of productions together!!! I love all of you!

Director Letter

I am extremely proud of this production, especially with the set and creativity that was put into this show. Dramatically Incorrect is moving from stage to screen and each person who is taking on a new role both on and off the stage. The quality of the cast and crew is outstanding, and I thank each of you.

This sinister thriller has more self production than what is seen on the screen; Death Trap does a great job infecting innocent dialogue to one with a hidden meaning. While our rehearsals did not have nearly the amount of drama or horror the show carries, the cast and crew were always stepping up with determination to make this a powerful and shocking show.

When the covid-19 pandemic hit, it was just before Dramatically Incorrect was to perform Twisted: An Untold Story of a Royal Vizier. Everyone was perplexed on how to perform in the future. Dramatically Incorrect is nothing if not persistent and driven to bring arts to the community. Dramatically Incorrect did virtual cabarets, original one-acts, and even rehearsals for future shows. Over time and with testing, a few DITGDC members were able to begin to see each other at the studio with masks, enhanced sanitization, and proper distancing.

The health risks associated with Covid-19 are no joke, and we do not take it lightly. Because of that, the cast has gone through self-quarantining, being tested, symptom monitoring, wearing masks until performance, using copious amounts of sanitizer, and most importantly being forthright with plans to travel out of quarantine. The cast has become extended family since they are the only people that are seen regularly outside of their household.

Enjoy our show and thank you all for supporting the arts and Dramatically Incorrect. Without you we would not be where we are today.

Please sit back and enjoy tonight's performance of Death Trap.
