Cast Biographies

Meredythe Leonard

as Anna Kearns

Meredythe is excited to be involved in her second DITGDC show! Meredythe's recent roles include "Mrs. Peacock" in "Clue: On Stage" with DITGDC. Other favorite roles include "Jovie" in "Elf: The Musical" at the Majestic Theater in Manchester, NH, and "Brooke/Vicki" in "Noises Off" at MCTP also in Manchester, NH. She is excited that she has been able to perform during this crazy time.

When not on stage, you can find her watching reality television, and eating tacos. Thanks for everyone who has taken the time out of their crazy schedules to support this show. Enjoy!

Michelle Kelly

as Divonne Bruder

This is my 5th show with Dramatically Incorrect and one that I feel very connected with. To say that I "Play" a character in this show is an understatement. I AM "Divonne" we are one in the same. Besides my passion and Love for horses and the career I have had with them, theater has been my other life.

Just like Divonne, I too have struggled for everything I believe in and want for myself. I will never let anything get in my way of my dreams, even when there are mountains to move, I find a way around them, if I didn't then I wouldn't be here today in this amazing show to bring you the story of The Green Room.

" All I wanna do is feel the stage lights on my face and get lost in another character, someone whos stronger then me that can teach me to be the best version of myself... All I wanna do is Act". In some ways I feel like this journey of four college friends all trying to reach their goals to become actors and make it big on the stage, is and has been my life. That's the journey I have been traveling on and I feel like my story is transferring into this show. It brings back so many memories and I can't wait for all of you to see it!!

The friendships the four of us have here is not just "on stage" but its also off stage. I am truly honored and blessed to be a part of this small yet and amazing and talented cast. My friends would all agree that I am the "Diva" of the group lol. But what can I say, it's true. Never give upon chasing your dreams because "In the end you do what you have to do...". Hope you enjoy the show!!

Cast Biographies

Leo Duke

as Cliff Kearns

Leo Duke is an actor, singer, and musician from New England and has been doing theatre since his freshman year of High School. This is his fourth production with DITGDC. In the past he has played the roles of The Baker (Into The Woods), Aladdin (Twisted!), Frederick (Noises Off), and Professor Callahan (Legally Blonde: The Musical). When he is not performing, he is studying Music Performance at The University of Massachusetts in Lowell, and writing music for his hard rock/metal band Crimson Wing. He is very excited to be a part of this performance of The Green Room, and he can't wait to see how people like it!

Connor Forbes

as John Radford

Connor Forbes (John) is excited to be back with DITGDC for yet another show, most recently seen as "Tim Allgood" in "Noises Off". Other favorite roles include "Andy" in "Flashdance" and... himself in "The Complete Works Of William Shakespeare (abridged)", along with being in the ensemble for both Mamma Mia and Beauty And The Beast. When not on stage, you can find him staying awake until 3:00 A.M., pumping gas, or writing biographies about himself in the third person. He wants to thank Paul for giving him the opportunity to continue his passion in a time of crisis.

Director Letter

I am extremely proud of this production, especially with the set and creativity that was put into this show. Dramatically Incorrect is moving from stage to screen and each person who is taking on a new role both on and off the stage. The quality of the cast and crew is outstanding, and I thank each of you.

This hilarious and touching show has more self production than what is seen on the screen; The Green Room: A College Musical does a great job showing the struggles and determination the actor's spirit goes through. While our show did not have the personal drama or lessons to learn like they do in The Green Room, the cast and crew was always stepping up with determination to make this a powerful show with the encouragement of the show creators. We all feel so honored to have been approached by the creators to trust us to produce this show during such a difficult time for so many artists.

When the covid-19 pandemic hit, it was just before Dramatically Incorrect was to perform Twisted: An Untold Story of a Royal Vizier. Everyone was perplexed on how to perform in the future. Dramatically Incorrect is nothing if not persistent and driven to bring arts to the community. Dramatically Incorrect did virtual cabarets, original one-acts, and even rehearsals for future shows. Over time and with testing, a few DITGDC members were able to begin to see each other at the studio with masks, enhanced sanitization, and proper distancing.

The health risks associated with Covid-19 are no joke, and we do not take it lightly. Because of that, the cast has gone through self-quarantining, being tested, symptom monitoring, wearing masks until performance, using copious amounts of sanitizer, and most importantly being forthright with plans to travel out of quarantine. The cast has become extended family since they are the only people that are seen regularly outside of their household.

Enjoy our show and thank you all for supporting the arts and Dramatically Incorrect. Without you we would not be where we are today.

Please sit back and enjoy tonight's performance of The Green Room: A College Musical.
