----- WHO'S WHO -----

Olivia Minchello

as Dotty/ Mrs. Clackett

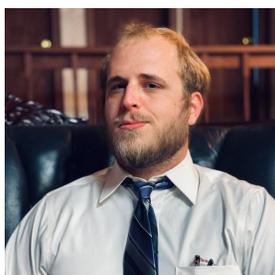

Olivia Minchello is ecstatic to be joining DITGDC for "Noises Off!" in the role of Dotty Otley/Mrs. Clackett! Olivia has been seen before with DITGDC as the Cop in "Clue" and featured ensemble in "Twisted". Otherwise Olivia has been seen in roles such as Meg Boyd in "Damn Yankees!", Dragon in "Shrek the Musical" and Housekeeper in "Man of La Mancha". Olivia has also worked with New England Conservatory in their Summer Opera Studio and with the Sarteano Choral Conducting Workshop in Tuscany, Italy. This fall Olivia will be a senior at UMass Lowell studying Music Education - Voice in hopes to be a high school choir director some day! When Olivia is not performing, you can find her at home binging a new show on Netflix or cuddling up with her dog Bear! Thank you to Olivia's roommates who have dealt with her running back and forth between work and rehearsals

Andrew Gibson

as Lloyd

Andrew is ecstatic to be returning to the role of Lloyd Dallas and his DITGDC family. This is his 2nd time playing Lloyd in Noises Off with his 1st time being at MCTP in Manchester NH 2 yrs ago. Andrew was last seen as Col Mustard in DITGDC's virtual showing of Clue. His other roles include The Beast in Beauty & the Beast, the title roles in Jekyll & Hyde, Bill Austin in Mamma Mia, and Bert in Mary Poppins. He thanks you all for tuning in and hopes you enjoy the laughs, the doors, and the sardines!

Dan Arlen

as Gary/ Roger

Dan is absolutely thrilled to be back in a show extremely close to his heart. Last seen as Gary in Manchester NH in 2018 he is looking forward to working with this cast on the production. Favorite roles include Joe in Fame, Gary/Roger in Noises Off, and Scuttle in the Little Mermaid, and Marcellus in the Music Man. Thank You Paul and Mike for the opportunity to be a part of this process and cast. A special thank you to my family and amazing friends (Joe, Caitlin, Ryan, Kelsey, John, Liz) for their constant support. This ones for you Grammy!!

Sara Landry

as Brooke/ Vicki

Sara Landry is so happy to be back at Dramatically Incorrect, especially in the role of Brooke/ Vicki in Noises Off. Noises Off was the first non-musical stage show she saw growing up that she wanted to act in. Sara is honored to be able to work with theaters around Massachusetts and New Hampshire this past year especially in the time of Covid-19. Some of her past credits include RENT (Maureen), Into the Woods (Witch), Twisted (Princess), and Clue (Miss Scarlett). Sara is delighted to work safely alongside her friends both new and old in this production. She sends a special thanks to her partner Phil Laks, whom she met doing theater, for supporting her passion for theater.

Please support the arts by attending online shows and doing your part to end the pandemic.

Michelle Kelly

as Poppy

Michelle Kelly is excited to be in "Noises Off" where she plays the role of "Poppy Norton Taylor" the Assistant Stage Manager for "Nothings On". Having a similar interest to some day manage and direct a show herself, Michelle enjoys playing this role and all the fun things that come along with working backstage. "Poppy" is a quiet and intimidated young woman, Michelle is a quirky and outspoken actress and loves to play a character that's the complete opposite of who she is. This is Michelle's 4th show with Dramatically Incorrect aside from participating with the ongoing Musical Cabarets that the company puts together.

Her passion to be an actress/singer and love for the stage has also been expanded to now being on film since the pandemic hit. Aside from music and theater, Michelle also has a passion for horses and hopes to one day have her own farm where she can provide equine assistant learning therapy to people of all ages. Most recent shows include Twisted (Bird, ensemble), Pets in Quarantine (Annabelle the GoldFish), and Clue (the cook).

To the cast she says: "Don't break a leg, instead squash a sardine and have a "bottle" ready for me after the show. Cheers to a crazy and fun show well done. Tim, thank you for the flowers and Lloyd... we need to have a chat..."

Leo Duke

as Frederick/ Philip

Leo Duke is an actor from New England, and has performed in many shows around the area over the past seven years. He is very excited to be performing in his third show with DITGDC. When he is not performing in the theatre, Leo is studying Music Performance at UMass Lowell, and writing and performing music for his band, Crimson Wing. He cannot wait to share this hilarious show with the audience.

Allison Sjolund

as Belinda/ Flavia

Allison Sjolund is excited to be performing in the hilarious farce Noises Off. This is her second performance with DITGDC; she performed as Mrs. White in DITGDC's production of Clue in July 2020. She would like to thank her husband, John, for his support and tolerance of the time she spends rehearsing.

Connor Forbes

as Tim

Connor Forbes is very excited to be a part of this very funny show with this extremely talented cast. Connor most recently appeared in DITGDC's production of Twisted: The Untold Story of a Royal Vizier as Prince Achmed. Previous shows include High Fidelity, The Hot L Baltimore, Jesus Christ Superstar, Legally Blonde, Mamma Mia, Cannibal! The Musical, and The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged), among other shows. In his free time, he enjoys music, film, and writing biographies about himself in the third person. He is very thankful to Paul for helping keep him sane, his parents for giving birth to him, and Keanu Reeves for being Keanu Reeves. Stay safe, enjoy the show, and wear a mask.

----- DIRECTOR LETTER -----

Note from the Director

I am extremely proud of this production, especially with the set and creativity that was put into this show. Dramatically Incorrect is moving from stage to screen and each person who is taking on a new role both on and off the stage. The quality of the cast and crew is outstanding, and I thank each of you.

This hilarious show has more self production than what is seen on the screen; Noises Off by Michael Frayn does a great job showing how much an audience doesn't get to see. While our show did not have the personal drama like they do in Noises Off, they always were stepping up (sometimes falling) and helping out wherever they could. One example of this is our own Devin Provencher (portrayed the sultan in Twisted: The Untold Story of a Royal Vizier). This was the first set Devin Provencher designed for a Dramatically Incorrect production and I couldn't have asked for more; thank you Devin for the long days/ nights you and I spent building/ moving the set.

When the covid-19 pandemic hit, it was just before Dramatically Incorrect was to perform Twisted: An Untold Story of a Royal Vizier. Everyone was perplexed on how to perform in the future. Dramatically Incorrect is nothing if not persistent and driven to bring arts to the community. Dramatically Incorrect did virtual cabarets, original one-acts, and even rehearsals for future shows. Over time and with testing, a few DITGDC members were able to begin to see each other at the studio with masks, enhanced sanitization, and proper distancing.

The health risks associated with Covid-19 are no joke, and we do not take it lightly. Because of that, the cast has gone through self-quarantining, being tested, symptom monitoring, wearing masks until performance, using copious amounts of sanitizer, and most importantly being forthright with plans to travel out of quarantine. The cast has become extended family since they are the only people that are seen regularly outside of their household.

Enjoy our show and thank you all for supporting the arts and Dramatically Incorrect. Without you we would not be where we are today.

Please sit back and enjoy tonight's performance of Noises Off.
