

MEDICAL DISCLOSURE WHEN RECEIVING TREATMENT or A READING

Hello Beautiful Soul!

THANK YOU for choosing me to assist you in your healing process and journey or for your furry companion! I wanted to send this message to keep not only for your records, but also as an indication that when receiving treatment with energy healing, please note the small disclosures listed below.

As your spiritual healer, I will NOT share personal experiences with others outside of your session/reading unless you have given that right to do so, or if you have shared feedback on my session discussing your treatment. The information I will receive is private between my clients and myself as I firmly believe in a safe environment for my clients at ALL times.

Also note that this is energy healing work and guidance, it is NOT an alternative for any serious medical conditions. If you are undergoing severe medical issues and/or emergencies, please seek aid from a medical professional first and foremost.

Lastly, when going through an energy healing session/reading with me, it is ultimately YOUR being that is receiving the healing energy. I am simply a conduit of the flow of the Kundalini Energy and once any blockages, issues, or energies have been removed, it is ultimately up to YOU to ensure you do not bring that energy, memory, or incite what initially began it back into your energetic field in both mind, body, and soul. Like exercising and eating healthy, it is up to you to ensure you remain in that healthy state.

If this is for your animal companion, The Veterinary Surgery Act of 1966 prohibits anyone other than a qualified veterinary surgeon from making a diagnosis of 'disease in' or 'injury to' animals, giving advice based on such a diagnosis or giving medical or surgical treatments. However, the healing of animals by contact healing, by the laying on of hands or distant healing is legal. In an emergency Reiki may be offered to an undiagnosed animal as first aid without veterinary consent for the purpose of relaxation until the vet arrives. By signing up for Reiki Services on animals and/or pets, you agree to this form and that you have discussed holistic treatment with your veterinarian, and they HAVE Approved of this service. I connect with your fur baby's higher self and if they state that I cannot perform healing services on the animal, I will inform you and will respect this companion's request. You will not be charged should no services be done.

By receiving the scheduled session/reading, you are authorizing me to aid you in your healing process or accepting the messages provided during any readings given. For readings, please use the messages as you see fit, this is simply guidance and ultimately YOUR decision to make choices based on the message provided. All beings have FREE WILL. What is being read is of the current predicament and may change based on YOUR free will.

For any further questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me and I would be happy to answer any concerns or issues you may have. Thank you so much for choosing me once again Beautiful Soul, and I look forward to helping you!

Love and Light Always!
~Lynn Lewis
