The Source and the Story

If you could pick any person in all of history to hang out with for a day, who would it be?

What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare His own Son, but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also, along with Him, graciously give us all things? Romans 8:31-32

- God is the source of _____ good.

But our citizenship is in Heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like His glorious body, by the power that enables Him even to subject all things to Himself. Philippians 3:20-21

Notes on what the Bible says about Heaven:

- Creation and Humanity are _____ in the Resurrection.

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life and have it to the full. John 10:10

Look for ways to tell!

Next Steps

1. Journal the following: Aside from exploring the new creation, what will occupy our time in Heaven (refer to Revelation 5:13; 22:5 for help)?
2. What reasons does Colossians 3:1-4 give us for why we should be focused on Heaven? What does Ecclesiastes 3:11 suggest about the appropriateness of longing for Heaven?
3. In this series, we said that our adventures do not end in this life, the greatest adventure still awaits us! What long awaited adventure do you anticipate experiencing in Heaven? Spend some time thanking God today for that hope.
REMEMBER: Your time in daily devotion and prayer is not just for your benefit. It's also for the benefit of others. Share what God is teaching you.
