Chapter M2

April 2020

By Dale Yager

There is more not happening this month than is happening. As a result of the spread of the virus first, Buncombe County then Henderson County and finally North Carolina State have all issued stay at home orders. This is certainly not breaking news but what it truly means will change everything we have planned for the month.

As mentioned in my non-meeting email earlier, this is a critical time to try to stop this virus. I have become acutely aware of safe distancing but not all my customers appear to understand it. Michelle and I are both still working during this time which means me more than her risk being exposed. Even if you do catch the virus and it does not affect you too bad it's who you transfer it to that will mean the most. Monday the State stay at home order goes into effect.

We will be cancelling the following events. Cooks night out scheduled for April 2nd. Our gathering scheduled for April 15th and the ride to Strawberry Hill that was to follow the gathering. We were trying to come up with ways to still have our gathering and the ride but this last order pretty much ended that. The ice cream ride scheduled for April 24th is also cancelled as well as the Melt Down scheduled for April 25th. Tech day at the Yager residence has been postponed for a future date-TBA. The remainder of the items on the calendar will have to be evaluated when we get closer to them. If your interpretation of the order is that you think you can ride, then that is your decision. As a Chapter Director, I feel it's my responsibility to not put any of you in harm's way.

At the beginning of May is the ride to Helen, GA that Bob Topper has planned. Bob used to live in the area and knows the town. In addition, June 12th to 14th on the calendar is the Kentucky weekend trip being planned by Frank Pizzardi. We need to know if you are planning to go (names only at this point).

NC Wings over the Smokies grand prizes tickets are here. Some of you took packets to sell at the last gathering. Didn't get any packets yet? Ask me as I would be happy to get you hooked up with some.

If you choose to ride be careful and stay safe.

Well another month has gone, Spring has sprung and we are all on quarantine for the nasty virus, well some of us are. I am now working from home and cabin fever is setting in. I have been doing work in my back yard, which gives me some relief. I hope that some or all of you have found something to do or even taken a short motorcycle ride, just to get the wind in your face, I was going to say hair, but some of us are lacking that, not going to mention names.

Now on a serious note, since we are home this would be a good time to take care of our motorcycles and do routine maintenance. Making sure to change your oil and filter at the appropriate time is vital to the health and longevity of your motorcycle. If your bike is due for an oil service and you've never done one before, look on you tube check out the process or call Dale, he can give you directions. You may need to order a few items, a new filter and the right oil for your machine to start, and possibly a rear stand too if your bike doesn't have a center stand. An oil pan is a must, and a torque wrench would be smart if this is your first time. All the items you'll need are detailed in the video; just be sure to check your local area to see if a proper oil disposal facility (like an auto parts store or waste facility) is open and accepting used oil.

Get your motorcycle fresh and clean, it'll make you feel a little swell of pride and it will help to keep your paint, chrome, and other finishes stay in top shape. You can get a specialized motorcycle cleaner if you'd like or you can use an all-purpose car wash. A sponge, a few buckets, some clean towels, and some smaller sponge brushes later and you'll be completely set to give your motorcycle a thorough clean. This is also a really great way to spend some time outside. Maybe crack a cold beverage while you're at it

Here are a few more tips that may be helpful: So try to stay busy, instead of having your significant other do all the cooking, do some yourself or share, help clean the house, catching up on some TV, learning some new hobbies that you may have wanted to do but didn't have time, well now is the time, no excuses.

At this time I still not sure about the ride to Bill Monroe's home, and the Corvette Museum, but I would like to know who would like to make that trip, I am thinking that we may take the shorter ride, like 6 to 7 hours. Since we are not having a meeting this month, whoever is interested in going for the ride in June, please e-mail me at fpizzardi64@gmail.com. I want to start making the arrangement for hotels and restaurants, but I need a count of who is going first.

I am going to canceled the First Aid/CPR class, the last thing I heard from district is that everything in a no go, so as soon as district lets me know that everything is back to normal, I will attempted to register us again for the class. I did get an e-mail from National that they are conducting on line courses, you may want to check that out, just go to the web site.

I am wishing everyone well and take care of yourselves during this most difficult time. If you need anything or want anything to be picked up, please don't hesitate to call someone who is able to. As members of this fine chapter I feel we could help one another during this most difficult time in our lives.

From the Top Reflections of the Membership Enhancement Coordinator

Are we having fun yet? I guess that the overwhelming response to that is NO! With the current state of the Covid-19 pandemic, fun is probably the least of priorities. I would partially agree, in that personal health and safety is, and should be, our #1 priority! Being socially responsible by keeping our distance from each other and not being out and about for no reason is smart. But your mental health is important, too!

Now, what to do with the time that your isolated at home? That's where we need to find some "fun" things to do. For many, this time can be considered like an extension of winter when we can still be doing things to service and prepare our bikes for riding . . . whenever that may be. At least with the warmer weather, it's not as bad in an open garage "playing".

Another option to consider, is to do some online training. Just out this week is an announcement from the GWRRA University that they will be offering some alternative online training, which you can learn about and sign up for at www.gwrradot.com. I would also put out there that there are a ton of YouTube videos to watch and learn from, regarding skills and knowledge relating to motorcycle riding and maintenance. Heck, you can even get a "riders eye view" of riding the Tale of the Dragon and lots of other fun roads.

Something else that you may want to do, that would benefit several folks, would be to go through your digital photos and videos and share them on our Facebook page or send them to me for inclusion on our website. We may not be able to get out and ride like we want, right now, but how about a virtual ride? Consider sharing any of your riding related photos/videos, especially those taken while with the group.

Lastly, and most importantly. Remember that you have help here in our little community. Should you need anything, whether it is bike related or not, please know that we are all here for each other and you could reach for assistance from almost anyone in our chapter, and you will get that help. We all hope that this pandemic and its harm will go away soon and leave our lives unscathed,

Be safe and healthy!
