KIDSTON AND COMPANY LLP

The winning bidder will get an hour video call with Darren and Rob to go over any of their family law questions they may have. The bidder may also designate another person to speak with Darren and Rob (like a family member or friend). Of course, a conflict search will need to be cleared before scheduling the call. If there is a conflict of interest, the bidder's money will be returned and the second place bidder will have the opportunity to have the video call.
