Thoughts for the day

Sometimes I’ll look down at my watch 3 consecutive times and still not know what time it is.

Nothing sucks more than that moment during an argument when you realize you’re wrong.

I totally take back all those times I didn’t want to nap when I was younger.

If all is not lost, then where the heck is it.

Map Quest or Google Maps really need to start their directions on #5. I’m pretty sure I know how to get out of my neighborhood.

Bad decisions make good stories.

I have a hard time deciphering the fine line between boredom and hunger.

You never know when it will strike, but there comes a moment when you know that you just aren’t going to do anything productive for the rest of the day.

It gets better as you get older, doesn’t it?
I was in Starbucks Coffee recently when my stomach started rumbling and I realized that I desperately needed to fart. The place was packed, but the music was really loud so to get relief and reduce embarrassment I timed my farts to the beat of the music. After a couple of songs I started to feel much better. I finished my coffee and noticed that everyone was staring at me. I suddenly remembered that I was listening to my iPod (with earpiece)- and how’s your day going?
