

John Seelke

Washington, DC, 2007

Candidate for NCTM Rep

I am seeking election as the NCTM Representative for CPAM to continue to collaborate and work with our national organization on common issues related to improving math education. I also hope to work with NCTM leaders to help advocate for the re-activation of the PAEMST program in a meaningful form or fashion.

Education

PhD University of Maryland – August 2018
M.Ed Boston College - May 1999
BS – Duke University (in Mathematics) – May 1996

Professional Experience

Montgomery County, MD: Pre-Algebra and Accelerated Math 7 teacher at North Bethesda MS 2024-Present
Montgomery County, MD: Instructional Specialist Secondary Mathematics: MCPS Sept 2019- June 2024
Washington, DC: Manager Secondary Math, District of Columbia Public Schools: Dec 2017 – Sept. 2019
College Park, MD: Secondary Mathematics Professional Development School Coordinator and Director of edTPA Implementation: August 2010 – December 2017
2017 - Present
Washington DC: Mathematics Teacher (multiple subjects): McKinley Technology High School, DC Public Schools: August 2004 – June 2010* (*took leave of absence from June 2009 – June 2010 to be stay at home dad)

Professional Organization-Service, Committees, Board Positions and Affiliations (Partial List)

Maryland Council of Teachers of Mathematics (President: 2023 – present)
CPAM (2008 – present)
NCTM (2008 – present)
NCSM
Pillar II Advisory Board for the Maryland Accountability and Implementation Board (2021 – 2025, chair 2021 – 2024)
Docs in Progress (focused on creating documentaries): Board Member (2021 – present)
Shepherd's Table (focused on feeding the hungry): Board Member (2023 – present)