

Susan Weiss

Massachusetts, 2000 Elem Candidate for Treasurer

I am seeking election as Treasurer for CPAM to continue to contribute to the field in meaningful ways. Through ongoing collaboration, I hope to highlight the successes in my experience as a math educator and bring innovative ideas to the CPAM.

Education

Cerification in Early Childhood Ed Technology, Tufts University, Medford, MA 2016

MS In Technolgy Lesley University, Cambridge, MA-June 2000

CAGS (Certificate in Grad Studies) in Special Ed Lesley Univ., Cambridge, MA 1996

MS (Math) Belfer Grad School, Yeshiva University, NYC - June 1982

MS (Education Math) Belfer Grad School, Yeshiva University, NYC- June 1982

BS, Mathematics, Stern College, Yeshiva University, NYC - June 1969

Fellowship: Woodrow Wilson Middle School Math Fellowship, Princeton, NJ -1994

Other Programs: Leadership Program in Discrete Math 1995-1998, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ

Licensures Acquired: K-5 Elementary, 5-9 Middle School, 9-12 High School, Special Ed in Middle School, Educational Technology in Middle School

Professional Experience

Solomon Schechter Day School, Newton, MA - 4th and 5thth Grade Mathematics Teacher, math Specialist, technology teacher, Math Intervention 2-8, technology support specialist 1984 – Present

Runkle Elementary School, Brookline, MA - Title 1 Math Teacher for grades 3 - 6 1980 -1984

New England Hebrew Academy, Brookline, MA - 6- 8th Grade Mathematics Teacher, 6-8th Science 1975-1980

Sharon HS, Sharon, MA, 9-10th Grade Mathematics 1973 -1975

Professional Organization-Service, Committees, Board Positions and Affiliations (Partial List)

Assoc of Math in Mass: Secretary, NCTM, Membership Chairperson, ATMIM mini grants, Registration committee for conferences, 2000 - present

CPAM: Webmaster, member since 2000

Presentations at NCTM, ATMIM, and ATMNE and more: Discrete Math, Literature and Math, Technology and Math, and more