Duties of CPAM President

1. Oversee the operation of CPAM through regular contact with Board members, listserv, response to member requests, interfacing with internal committees, and with external groups and individuals.
2. In order to maintain affiliate status with NCTM and NCSM, the President must be a member in good standing with NCTM and NCSM. The NCTM membership dues are to be paid by the President. The NCSM membership dues may be paid by CPAM.
3. Set agendas for and chair all Board meetings including the one held during the NCTM Annual Meeting, the summer meeting and any monthly meetings via Zoom. Submit travel expenses for the summer meeting to the Treasurer within 30 days of the Board meeting.
4. Monitor the progress of the “to do” lists prepared by the Secretary at each Board meeting. Monitor the duties on the job descriptions for the Board and Committee Chairs.
5. Work with the Board to plan the Annual CPAM Business Meeting at the NCTM Annual Meeting. Prepare the CPAM Is Your Organization! form to be distributed at the Annual CPAM Business Meeting.
6. Invite the featured speaker for the CPAM Leadership Seminar for a K-12 presentation.
7. Work with President-Elect or Past President to ensure that events at the NCTM Annual Meeting (CPAM Leadership Seminar, CPAM Reception, Annual Breakfast, Business Meeting and Board Meeting) are arranged and coordinated.
8. Communicate regularly with the Nominations and Election Committee. Post candidate profiles on a Google Drive to facilitate the online election process. Post notices as needed on the President’s Update e-mails soliciting nominations for offices and explaining the election process.
9. Appoint the chairs, with Board approval, for the Nominations and Election Committee and for the Scholarship Committee. Collect committee reports. See that members are appointed to these two committees in a timely fashion.
10. Review appointed positions on the Board – Database Manager, Newsletter Editor and Web Master.
11. Write President’s column for each issue of the newsletter. Prepare periodic President’s Update e-mails.
12. Write an article for the August issue of the newsletter welcoming the new officers and thanking the officers who are leaving the board.
13. Write an article on Lands’ End logo attire for the November issue of the newsletter.
14. Assist with editing the newsletters and meeting minutes.

Duties of CPAM Treasurer

1. Maintain accurate books listing credits and debits with an accurate balance. The accounts are housed in two accounts. One account is for general expenses. Dues and contributions go into this account. The second account is for the Denise I. Griffiths Scholarship Fund. As this scholarship fund accumulates, the money is transferred to the Baltimore Community Foundation (BCF) which manages the scholarship dispersal. At the discretion of the Treasurer, there can be just one bank account with careful records tracking the scholarship donations.
2. Receive dues payments and scholarship donations. Confirm these in the database. Deposit funds to the appropriate accounts.
3. Pay all bills including NCTM and NCSM affiliate dues. Notify the NCTM Representative when the NCTM and NCSM dues are paid.
4. Prepare financial reports for Board meetings and for the annual business meeting.
5. Prepare a copy of the June 30th treasurer's report for the November newsletter.
6. Receive annual breakfast reservations and payments. Make name tags for attendees.
7. Collect RSVPs for people attending the CPAM reception/dinner at NCTM.
8. Arrange for a review of the financial records at the time of transfer to the next treasurer.
9. Transfer the bulk of the funds to the new treasurer by July 1, the start of the new fiscal year. Transfer the remaining balance of funds when all outstanding bills have been paid but no later than September 30th.
10. Keep the extra pins from each year and sell them as needed for $6.00.
11. Write an article on the extra pins for the August newsletter.
12. Arrange for ordering and payment of name badges for new officers.
13. Attend all Board meetings including the one held during NCTM Annual Meeting, the summer meeting and any monthly meetings via Zoom. Submit travel expenses for the summer meeting to the Treasurer within 30 days of the Board meeting.

Duties of CPAM NCTM Representative

1. Serve as a liaison among NCTM, NCSM and CPAM and coordinate with other affiliate groups at large.
2. Work with the Treasurer to see that the NCTM and NCSM affiliate dues are paid in a timely fashion. NCTM affiliate dues should be paid in early April and the NCSM affiliate dues should be paid in early August.
3. In order to maintain affiliate status with NCTM and NCSM, the NCTM Representative must be a member in good standing with NCTM and NCSM. The NCTM membership dues are to be paid by the NCTM Representative. The NCSM membership dues may be paid by CPAM.
3. Attend the Delegate Caucuses and the Delegate Assembly held during the NCTM Annual Meeting, represent the views of CPAM, and vote accordingly on resolutions and issues brought before the delegates. When possible, have a second CPAM Board member attend the Delegate Caucuses and the NCTM Delegate Assembly.
4. Submit NCTM resolutions for the Delegate Assembly after Board approval.
5. Report on issues discussed by the Delegate Caucuses and Assemblies to the Board and the CPAM membership, and solicit input for further discussions and directions. This should be done orally at the annual CPAM breakfast and Board meeting during the NCTM Annual Meeting as well as in a written report in the November newsletter.
6. Update the Board on NCTM policies, activities and procedures.
7. Follow the criteria for an affiliate to be “in good standing” with NCTM so that CPAM maintains its good standing status. Forward the NCTM dues notice to the Treasurer in a timely manner. Update the affiliate officer list with NCTM after the May/June election.
8. Submit articles with appropriate NCTM information for each issue of the CPAM newsletter.
9. Attend all Board meetings including the one held during NCTM Annual Meeting, the summer meeting and any monthly meetings via Zoom. Submit travel expenses for the summer meeting to the Treasurer within 30 days of the Board meeting.

Duties of CPAM Database Manager

1. Maintain an accurate listing of current members, those lapsed over time, and those non-renewed for the current year. This involves recording all renewals including any updated information as well as recording scholarship donations. CPAM membership runs from July 1st through June 30th regardless of when dues are paid.
2. Maintain an accurate list of deceased CPAM members. Submit the deceased names to the PAEMST website for inclusion on the national list of deceased awardees.
3. Add new awardees as they are named to both the CPAM database and supply list to the Web Master.
4. E-mail receipts for dues and scholarship contributions. The IRS requires a written acknowledgement for donations of $250 or more. The acknowledgement must contain the amount of the donation, the date of the contribution, a description and value of goods the organization provides in return or a statement that no goods or services were provided.
5. Provide Dues Notice forms to the Newsletter Editor for inclusion in the May and August newsletters. Membership articles should be included in both newsletters.
6. Send an updated Dues Notice form to the Web Master for posting on the CPAM website by May 1.
7. Prepare a membership report for the August newsletter with a list of deceased Presidential Awardees from the previous year.
8. Prepare a list of scholarship donors for the Newsletter Editor for the August issue.
9. Prepare the CPAM Directory as new awardees are announced and make the CPAM Directory available upon request only to current members.
10. Provide files for mailing labels as requested. The standard preparation is:
 - Paid up members and non-paid up from the two previous membership years and the VIP list for the August issue. Membership expiration dates should appear on the mailing labels.
 - Members who request a paper copy and VIP list for November and March issues.
 - Paid up members and VIP list for the May issue.
11. Forward all monies to the Treasurer in a timely manner.
12. Provide e-mail addresses for current members to the Nominations and Election Committee for the May/June election.
13. Work with the Web Master to track down bounced e-mail addresses from e-mailed newsletters.

Duties of CPAM Nominations and Election Committee Chair

1. Work with the President to make certain that a full Nominations and Election Committee is in place before the end of June. The Chair of the Nominations and Election Committee should report monthly to the President on the status of the nominations process.
2. Solicit nominations for office. Prepare a “Call for Nominations” article for the August newsletter including the offices up for election, overview of duties, and names of the members of the Nominations and Election Committee. A second “Call for Nominations” article should appear in the November newsletter.
3. Send periodic reminders to the listserv seeking nominations for office. Work with the President to promote nominations through the President’s Update e-mails.
4. The Nominations and Election Committee should prepare a slate of not more than two candidates for each office. Candidates should be notified of the date for the summer Board meeting. The CPAM Board should review and approve the ballot.
5. Confirm that updated job descriptions are available online at the CPAM website. All members of the Nominations and Election Committee should have copies of the job descriptions and can send them to potential candidates.
6. Confirm with the Database Manager that candidates are current CPAM members.
7. Provide candidate profiles in the appropriate format to the Newsletter Editor by April 1.
8. Arrange for the election. The election is currently carried out with online voting. Ask the Database Manager to send current member e-mail addresses to the online voting administrator for the online election. The timing of the online election must be agreed upon by the President, the Newsletter Editor, the Nominations and Election Chair and the online voting administrator.
9. The President will arrange for the posting of the candidate profiles to a Google Drive so that the online voting administrator can reference the posting of the profiles both online and in the May issue of the newsletter.
10. Explain the election procedures through the newsletter(s) (March/May issues), with announcements on the listserv and through the President’s Update e-mails. In each reminder, encourage members with e-mail address changes to notify the Database Manager. Only CPAM members with accurate e-mail addresses on file will receive notification about the online voting.
11. Newly elected officers begin their term of office on July 1 following the election through June 30th two years later.

8. Prepare an announcement on the scholarship recipient for the annual CPAM Business Meeting.
9. Prepare four newsletter articles:
 - a. August — Send the Scholarship Application (criteria and application form) to the newsletter. Write an accompanying article about the scholarship. This article should list all scholarship recipients and request scholarship contributions. Write about what the current scholarship recipients did over the summer.
 - b. November — Send the Scholarship Application (criteria and application form) to the newsletter. Write an accompanying article about the scholarship.
 - c. March — Write about what the current scholarship recipients are doing in college. (Look for any tutoring, assisting teachers, or math related activity.)
 - d. May — Write an article on the recently announced scholarship recipient. Include a photograph of the student.
10. Send timely reminders to scholarship recipients to submit required information to BCF.
11. Prepare reports for the two CPAM Board Meetings: one held during the NCTM Annual Meeting and one held in the summer. In addition to the reports, provide an updated CPAM Scholarship Chart for each Board meeting with a running total of scholarship money awarded by CPAM and the information chart on each scholarship recipient.
12. Award the Margie Raub Hunt Materials Grant when a scholarship recipient graduates from college and starts his/her first semester of teaching.
13. Keep updated electronic files of duties and activities to pass on to the next Scholarship Committee Chair.

Newsletter deadlines are July 1, October 1, February 1 and April 1.

Articles are to be written in single space Cambria 10 font with no added formatting (like spaces between paragraphs). All articles will be submitted with headlines and writer's name with correct format for identifying member, e.g., Kathy Miles, MD '93 Sec. For the apostrophe before the year, do not use a half-quote. Use the apostrophe available under Insert.

Duties of CPAM Advisor

CPAM Advisor is an ex-officio position on the Board held by Denise I. Griffiths. Denise started the CPAM newsletter in 1984 and was instrumental in founding CPAM. Her husband, John E. Griffiths, incorporated CPAM in the state of Delaware, filed the 501(c)(3) application for CPAM and has handled CPAM's tax filings with the IRS. If Denise is no longer able to serve as the CPAM Advisor, then some of the tasks below should be re-assigned as noted.

1. File CPAM's appropriate tax form (Form 990-N or Form 990-EZ) with the IRS. (Treasurer)
2. Pay the Annual Delaware Franchise Tax and file the accompanying report. The fee and report are annual requirements since CPAM is incorporated in Delaware. (Treasurer)
3. Review the financial reports for the Treasurer. Serve as the alternate signature on all CPAM financial accounts.
4. Maintain a historical listing of CPAM officers. (Secretary)
5. Provide feedback and background information to the Board.
6. Assist with editing the newsletters and meeting minutes.
7. Order plaques for the outgoing officers. (President)
8. Maintain the CPAM Job Descriptions & Newsletter Publication Guidelines. Share the updated file each year with the Nominations & Election Committee Chair after the summer Board meeting and with the Web Master for posting on CPAM's website. (Secretary)
9. Work with the Web Master to ensure that CPAM's domain name is properly registered with Network Solutions. (Web Master)
10. Order awardee gifts for new awardees. (President)
11. Handle the advertising and registration for the CPAM Leadership Seminar. Maintain the seminar financial history and compile the seminar evaluations. Provide a follow-up article to the seminar.
12. Serve on the CPAM Scholarship Committee.
13. Provide a history article for the November issue of the newsletter.
14. Provide a ribbons and t-shirt article for the August issue of the newsletter.
15. Provide an article and news release on the student certificate for the March issue of the newsletter.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Council of Presidential Awardees in Mathematics (CPAM) is to utilize the uniqueness and talents of its membership to influence the processes of teaching mathematics in order to promote and provide appropriate mathematical experiences for students.

To accomplish the mission, CPAM embraces the following goals:

1. To provide a network among the membership for the exchange of ideas, issues and strategies.
2. To provide professional development opportunities for the members of CPAM.
3. To develop professional relationship with various educational groups.
4. To encourage those with excellent potential to enter mathematics teaching.
5. To promote the professional development of mathematics teachers.
6. To encourage the retention of effective mathematics teachers.

COUNCIL OF PRESIDENTIAL AWARDEES IN MATHEMATICS

CPAM PLANNING WEEKEND

Hotel Sofitel, Chicago, IL

March 22-24, 1991

Ten members of the Council of Presidential Awardees in Mathematics (CPAM) participated in a weekend series of meetings devoted to the development of a mission statement and goals for the CPAM organization. The ten CPAM members included four members of the current Executive Board, two former members of the Executive Board, two at-large secondary members and two 1990 elementary members. The participants were

Laurie Boswell, New Hampshire 1986, President-Elect
Jack Burrill, Wisconsin 1987, Secondary Awardee
Karen Dotseth, Iowa 1984, Current Past-President
Paul Foerster, Texas 1983, Secondary Awardee
Linda Gojak, Ohio 1990, Elementary Awardee
Denise Griffiths, Delaware 1983, Secretary & Newsletter Editor
Chuck Hamberg, Illinois 1983, Past-President
Tim Kanold, Illinois 1986, Past-President
Guy Mauldin, Tennessee 1986, President
Jennie Robison, Wyoming 1990, Elementary Awardee

Funds for this planning weekend were provided by a grant from the Exxon Education Foundation through the efforts of Laurie Boswell.

This document includes the names of the writers of CPAM's Mission Statement and goals, the actual Mission Statement with the goals, and the methods of achieving the goals according to short, medium and long term activities.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Council of Presidential Awardees in Mathematics (CPAM) is to utilize the uniqueness and talents of its membership to influence the processes of teaching mathematics in order to promote and provide appropriate mathematical experiences for students.

To accomplish the mission, CPAM embraces the following goals:

1. To provide a network among the membership for the exchange of ideas, issues and strategies.
2. To provide professional development opportunities for the members of CPAM.
3. To develop professional relationships with various educational groups.
4. To encourage those with excellent potential to enter mathematics teaching.
5. To promote the professional development of mathematics teachers.
6. To encourage the retention of effective mathematics teachers.

METHODS OF ACHIEVING THE GOALS

SHORT TERM ACTIVITIES (6 months - 12 months)

1. The organization will survey its membership regarding activities since receiving the award. (#2)
2. Continue the newsletter. (#1, 2)
Discussed and overruled: best lesson column in newsletter, elementary column.
3. Continue annual business meeting. (#1, 2)
4. Develop a plan/funding base for having the Executive Board meet twice yearly -- once for a planning weekend during the school year and once during the summer in conjunction with a CPAM activity. (#1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6)

- 5 Lobby NSF (National Science Foundation) to allow greater participation by CPAM in the planning and execution of the Awards Week(s). (#1)
- 6 Begin dialogue with educational leaders to investigate the development of a specific training program for the evaluators of mathematics teaching. (#3, 4, 5, 6)
7. Immediate focus on Scholarship Fund (#6)
 - a) Growth -- target more than one student
 - b) Broaden financial support/base
 - c) In April, committee may need to look at other options -- e.g., McDonald's program, university funds
- 8 Continue letters of support to administrators for attending CPAM meeting(s)/institutes. (#2)
- 9 Form a committee to write newsletter articles -- submit articles to other newsletters, journals to address other audiences -- principals group, guidance counselors, parents, etc. (#3)
- 10 Continue to involve CPAM in speaking/leadership roles in other organizations by creating a Public Relations Committee. (#3)
11. Professional development and renewal programs
 - a) TTT (Teachers Teaching Teachers) Conference (#5)
 - b) New CPAM/NSF project -- "Leadership and Enabling Change Project" (#1, 2, 5)
- 12 Retaining teachers (#6)
 - a) Improve the awareness of enabling conditions necessary for teacher success and satisfaction
 - b) Generate a position statement on "enabling conditions" and disseminate (possibly through ASCD - Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development)
- 13 Student recognition (#4)
 - a) Issue CPAM certificates of honor to outstanding math students
 - b) To be presented by awardee to student(s) of his/her choosing
 - c) Package certificate(s) with a press release to be supplemented by local information -- implement April 1991
 - d) Signatures on certificate will be CPAM president and CPAM member presenting the award
 - e) Consider possible national recognition for this program

MEDIUM TERM ACTIVITIES (1-2 years)

1. Appoint regional directors from each NCTM (National Council of Teachers of Mathematics) region to work with the Executive Board: to act as a local contact, to report to newsletter, to plan a CPAM activity for regional conferences, to track the dates and names of the program chairs for state and regional math affiliates/activities. (#1, 2, 3)
2. Begin planning summer retreats. (#1, 2, 3)
 - a) To provide horizontal and vertical articulation of CPAM members (multilevel Honors Conference - 1992))
 - b) To hold a writers' retreat to assist with writing articles, grants , "how to guides" (how to guides on grants, workshops, implementing the Standards)
 - c) To provide professional development on particular topics
 - d) To work with members of APAST (Association of Presidential Awardees in Science Teaching) on curriculum materials
3. Begin preparing the membership to articulate CPAM's mission and goals possibly via a brochure or fact sheet. (#1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6)
4. Establish relationship with mathematics education organizations to improve teacher preparation. (#3, 4, 5, 6)
5. Scholarship Committee -- Collect data/information on what is being done now to encourage people to go into mathematics education -- e.g., universities, etc. (#4)
6. Provide school administrators with criteria for identifying good math teachers. (#6)
7. Provide expanded recognition program for state awardees. (#6)
8. Develop a "new awardees handbook". (#1)

LONG TERM ACTIVITIES (greater than 2 years)

1. Work to electronically network members. (#1, 2, 3)
2. Develop video tapes of best lessons. (#1, 2, 3, 5)
3. Use electronic network to contain expanded directory. (#1, 2)
Expanded directory could include teaching assignments, special interests.

4. Run a math conference sponsored by CPAM with a focus on excellence in teaching at all levels (K-12). (#1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6)
 - a) To be held in summer
 - b) To make money
 - c) To train membership
 - d) To train and develop others
 - e) To implement the Standards
 - f) Two-three days in length
 - g) Support from publishing companies or other corporations

This conference is "unique" since 1) emphasis on "classroom teachers", 2) vertical strands, 3) "teams" of a variety of audiences – e.g., district supervisor or school board member, building administration, guidance counselor, teacher.
5. Plan to hire a paid staff -- Executive Director, Corresponding Secretary -- to carry out day-to-day mission/goals of CPAM. (#1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6)
6. Hold recruiting seminars -- alliance with universities, corporations, others. (#4)
7. Develop state and regional initiatives -e.g., implementing the Standards. (#5)

The highlights of the major actions discussed by the group can be summarized with the following list:

1. Student recognition -- honor certificates -- implement immediately
2. Multilevel Honors Conference -- summer 1992
3. CPAM Conference open to all math teachers and other educators -- summer 1993
4. Paid Executive Director and support staff -- when?
5. Articulation of CPAM's Mission -- ongoing
