MY MOTHER'S ITALIAN, MY FATHER'S JEWISH & I'M IN THERAPY

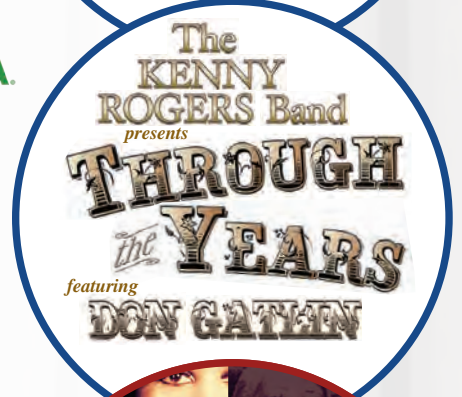

Steve Solomon's two-time award-winning show has met with rave reviews and great audience acclaim throughout the country, becoming one of the longest-running one-man shows in Broadway history. Once again, we meet the people that we're all too familiar with – the family members that make you remember why you left home in the first place. It's a laugh-filled fest of everybody you know, have known, and some you'd want to forget but can't, all brought to life on stage by the comic magic of Steve Solomon. Described as "One part lasagna, one-part kreplach, and two parts Prozac," you don't have to be Jewish or Italian to love this show. All you need is to know what it feels like to leave a family dinner with heartburn and a headache! My Mother's Italian, My Father's Jewish and I'm In Therapy ran for two years in New York City, has toured internationally to more than 200 cities and has sold almost a million tickets so far. "Amazing! Hysterical! A wonderful show! I still hurt from laughing!" – BroadwayWorld.com

SMOKEY & ME: THE CELEBRATION OF SMOKEY ROBINSON

As the story goes, Smokey Robinson, a founder of Motown and one of the producers of Motown: The Musical, went backstage on opening night to look for the handsome young actor who portrayed him in the show. When he found him backstage, he came up to him, smiled and simply said, "Hello, Me!" This delightful story became the inspiration for a spectacular show that celebrates the life, music and career of acclaimed singer-songwriter Smokey Robinson, once pronounced by Bob Dylan as America's "greatest living poet." Join Tony-nominee Charl Brown to celebrate Smokey's story and many of his biggest hits: both the ones he sang and the ones he wrote, including, "Shop Around", "Going to a Go-Go", "You've Really Got a Hold on Me", "My Girl", "I Second That Emotion", "Tracks of My Tears", and so many more.
