

Congratulations

You have achieved a milestone in the Fire Department testing process and have moved onto the interview portion.

PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

We strive to see future firefighters achieve their goals and to obtain the career they have always wanted. Success in your fire service entry level interview is the next step to achieve that goal.

We provide these services for individuals, study groups, or departments dedicated in preparing the best candidates for the most important positions.

- Personal coaching
- 1:1 interview preparation
- Seminar/ group presentations

We understand these are difficult times to meet in person and prepare for your interview and are now offering video conferences for the above-mentioned services. The video interview preparation will be offered for $100 for an hour and a half individual session while current events continue. Group rates are also available.

Visit our Website and contact us through:

PromotionalOpportunities.net