

THANK YOU - ADDITIONAL RESOURCES Open Heart Bible Study Challenge

Susan Hopkins

Maintaining an open heart to be led of the Holy Spirit!

A scripture comes to my mind this morning: Psalm 119:11 New Living Translation ... I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you. It's not about memorizing the word, but that in itself might allow a transition to be retained in the heart. For this reason I am recommending a few more resources for your consideration.

MEDITATION: How to Study the Bible in the Presence of God
by Dr. Mark and Patti Virkler - Verses leaping off the page - Mark Virkler writes:

"I wrote this ebook because for many years I studied the Bible with my mind only, and it produced death rather than life (2 Cor. 3:6-9). I came out of Bible college just like the Apostle Paul, attacking those who disagreed with my theology. Once I learned to hear God's voice, I let God lead me to Scriptures, and reveal them to my heart, and I experienced what the disciples experienced: my heart burning within as Jesus was opening up Scriptures (Lk. 24:32). Verses now leap off the page. Revelation flashes. This happens every single day, every single time I open the Bible. I want you to have this experience, so in this booklet you will discover how to posture your heart and mind properly so this wonderful miracle of Holy Spirit revelation occurs for you every single day for the rest of your life."

Counseled by God: Emotional wholeness through hearing God's voice

"You do not have to hurt forever. There is an end to the pain. A genuine word from the Lord heals the broken-hearted. All the "how to" books can never do what a rhema word from God can do for the inner man. Mark and Patti Virkler describe the loving care of a living God deep in the broken places of our lives. Their simple clarity, gentle compassion, and assuring confidence will help you experience wholeness and contentment in Christ Jesus. You will never be the same after reading this book!"
