On the 3rd Sunday of every month, you can join your neighbors and RefuseSF &amp; SF Public Works for a friendly neighborhood cleanup! Volunteers meet at Noe Valley Town Square to grab supplies &amp; form a crew. Trash pickup is 10:00 am - 12:00 pm around the neighborhood.

Sunday, July 27, 1:00 - 3:00 PM*Acoustic Sunday: Probabilities du Nord

The Probabilities du Nord celebrate the joyful niche music of fiddle tunes from the Canadian province of Quebec. Mainly folk-dance music with a heritage brought over from Europe by the fur traders and trappers of France, with Irish, Scottish and Indigenous flavours in the mix. The "Billies" are Tony Phillips (fiddle, mandolin), David Brown (fiddle, guitar), Daniel Hersh (concertinas), Stephanie Costanza (fiddle) and Kerry Parker (fiddle). Band members have been playing at the weekly Noe Valley Farmer's Market since its very beginning near the turn of this century - come on down for some toe-tapping tunes.
