Sundays, November 8, 15, 29 & December 6, 13, 27
11:00 AM - noon (weather permitting)
Start your Sunday with all-levels Vinyasa yoga—a flowing style that links poses together in a smooth sequence, moving with your breath from one to the next. Roll out your mat and stretch under the open sky.

Sunday, November 15
1:00 PM – 3:00 PM
Annual Noe Valley Friendsgiving
You've waved at them on the street and borrowed their ladder. Now meet your neighbors for real over bingo, the dad joke competition, and musical chairs.
Add your thanks to the gratitude tree or write a thank-you letter to someone who deserves one. A dozen local nonprofits will be on site so you can find a cause (and some new friends) to get involved with.
Come for the games, stay for the connection. treats and hot apple cider!

Sunday, November 22
1:00 – 2:00 PM
Sunday Music in the Square: JimBo Trout
JimBo's music is a good-time gumbo of bluegrass, old-time, ragtime, blues, western-swing, rockabilly, honky-tonk country,jug band,jazz, swing, Cowboy, rock+roll, New Orleans, and more. But he would never let tradition stand in the way of a good time. His appeal extends to fans of traditional music as well as those with more modern tastes, young and old, and in-between.

2:00 – 3:00 PM
Sunday Music in the Square: Amy Obenski
Amy Obenski's crystalline vocals float over haunting, cinematic backdrops, drawing listeners from quiet confession into luminous release. Her songs create an atmosphere that feels deeply personal while filling an entire room.

Tuesday, December 1
5:00 PM – 7:00 PM
Annual Noe Valley Tree Lighting

The Noe Valley Tree Lighting is back! Join us as we light the 15-foot holiday tree with an LED acrobatic show by A&B Circus, caroling from the Loosies, a bell performance from Bell Appeal, and balloon animals. Enjoy cookies from Noe Valley Bakery, hot chocolate from Martha Brothers Coffee, and prizes from local shops, cafes, and restaurants.

Thursday, December 3
4:30 – 7:30 PM
Noe Valley Winter Wine Walk
Pick up your glass at the Noe Valley Town Square and set off on an evening of delicious wines and great company. As you stroll down 24th Street and the surrounding area, keep an eye out for banners guiding you to a variety of wine tastings—all included with your ticket. Local businesses will be open late for sipping and shopping, making it the perfect time to explore. Don't miss out!
