Fridays at 5: Noe Music in the Square: Le Jazz Hot

The Hot Club of San Francisco brings the shimmer and swing of Manouche jazz – born in the cafés and courtyards of 1930s Paris – to our own neighborhood piazza. Guitars, violin, and rhythm section lock into a groove that makes standing still feel rude. Grab a drink from the Vibe Truck, a slice from Haystack Pizza, and let San Francisco's finest practitioners of this art form make your Friday evening exactly what it should be.
