 Sentinel of Spirit — Wingstem & White Snakeroot
The Working of the Watcher
Old Spirits, Wild Roots | First Night Hollow

Sentinel of Spirit is a protective conjure working crafted for those standing guard over their peace, their land, their spirit, and the threshold between what is welcome and what is not.

Created at First Night Hollow from Wingstem and White Snakeroot, this ritual oil carries the energy of vigilance, discernment, spiritual authority, and boundary keeping. It is a working for the watchful — those who sense what moves beneath the surface and refuse to leave themselves spiritually undefended.

Wingstem brings resilience, illumination, and the steady inner light needed to remain standing through adversity. White Snakeroot has long carried a reputation in Appalachian folk tradition as a plant of warning, boundaries, and spiritual seriousness — a plant that demands respect and clear intention.

Together, they create a powerful guardian current:
not aggressive,
not chaotic,
but unwavering.

Sentinel of Spirit whispers:
Stand firm. See clearly. Let nothing cross uninvited.
