

NAVAL ORDER OF THE UNITED STATES
PHILADELPHIA / DELAWARE VALLEY COMMANDERY

Cordially invites you to a luncheon meeting

Monday, 13 January 2020
1130 Reception
1200 Luncheon

Historic Downtown Philadelphia

Speaker

CAPT Scott Anderson

Port Security in Philadelphia and on the Delaware River

Captain Scott Anderson, Commander of US Coast Guard Sector Delaware Bay and Captain of the Port of Philadelphia, oversees 750 Coast Guardsmen and 2,000 Auxiliary volunteers, who provide marine safety, security and environmental protection across Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware out to 200 miles offshore.

A graduate of the Coast Guard Academy, he has a Masters in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering from the University of Michigan and served on the USCGC Polar Star, tours at Marine Safety Offices at Houston, New Orleans, and Memphis, Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, Lower Mississippi, Upper Mississippi, St. Lawrence Seaway and since 2015 Philadelphia as Sector Commander Delaware Bay.

<https://navalorderphila.org>