

Employment Opportunity

Position: Risk & Insurance Management Analyst,

Summary: Risk and Insurance Management Analyst is to conduct insurance risk management analysis for clients; provide commercial insurance risk management analysis to management and insurance carriers; provide underwriting support to company management and insurance carriers, make recommendations and provide solutions to clients; develop abroad understanding of environment in which the insured operates; and communicate clients' particulars, including budgeted revenue, to company management and insurance carriers for risk management purposes.

Specific Duties:

- Provide strategic analysis on Clients' Risk Management Record and Agency Loss Record to optimize our profitability and Loss Ratio in overall and separate business lines;
- Provide professional and appreciate risk management advices for clients, cooperate with the loss control department of insurance carriers and follow up with the compliance of loss control recommendations;
- Assist with data gathering and reporting to satisfy requests made by regulatory agencies, auditors and inspectors for Loss Control purpose;
- Evaluate the implementation of risk reduction strategies and develop complex models and analysis of the cost and benefits associated with risk transfer;
- Perform underwriting loss analysis for all property and casualty insurance renewals;
- Provide analysis for underwriting, claims, and budgeting decision making and represent Risk Management in claims meetings to ensure optimization and to provide Risk oversight;
- Conduct research on current market risk initiatives and stay well versed in insurance industry standards, policies, changes and news;
- Conduct ad-hoc risk studies and quantitative analysis as required and develop reports summarizing analytical results and recommendations.

Job Requirements:

- Four years college degree or equivalent in Finance, Risk Management or closely related fields;
- Excellent in Data Analysis and Risk Management knowledge;
- Proficient in Excel, MS Access, and Spreadsheets;
- Excellent in oral and written skills;
- Detail oriented.

Submit Inquiries to: abestinc7@gmail.com