FYI (New Addition to Agendas)

1. New aerators for the Wastewater Plant have been delivered but propellers need to be ordered.
2. Wastewater Plant pipe repairs are on hold to determine who is responsible for the labor (digging up the holes). Denene will have on-site a 2nd pump truck for sewage.

Old Business:

1. Still a need to contact other municipalities regarding sharing of Code Enforcer.

2. Interviews were held on April 29, 2026 for summer work (four interviews were completed).
3. Greg Fury never returned calls regarding volunteering to clean up the town.

New Business:

1. Patching of roads has commenced.
2. Car Show is scheduled in connection with Lumberport Fire Department for June 27, 2026.
3. Workshop was held on April 27, 2026 with all council present together with Stephanie and Alan Westfall regarding upcoming contract.
4. Need for excavator on site at Lloyd Spry's business.
5. Requesting proposals from Amos Paving for paving Church, Water and Second Streets but attempting to find other estimates.
6. Water Clerk has been updating files and gathering information pertinent to certain locations wherein we had no knowledge of and not being charged water and/or sewage.
7. We received two letters from WV Taxpayer Services Division that our State tax withholding for first quarter and fourth quarter of 2025 were incorrect and forwarded to Service Pro to make corrections.
