

LYDIAN

BROKER SPOTLIGHT

Simply, Great Advice.

DARREN BRYANT
Mortgage Broker

“A bit of a property geek; meaning his love for the property scene is a perfect match with his desire to help clients reach their goals.”

Darren Bryant has more than 20 years of accumulated banking and finance knowledge and experience, delivering the very best possible results for clients. He describes himself as ‘a bit of a property geek’; meaning that his love for the property scene is a great fit with his love of being able to assist clients with achieve their property goals.

Specialising in the Mortgage and Lending profession over the past 10 years, his professional satisfaction comes from finalising deals which require robust discussions to get them over the line. Darren can demystify anything! He is able to work through complex financial information and banking processes, into approachable and digestible concepts that clients feel comfortable with. His attention to detail makes the process and the experience smooth and efficient as possible.

Darren delights in combining two of his other passions – travel and cooking. An avid fan of the Pitmaster series, Darren is renowned for his Rum & Coke Smokey Ribs...“it’s a very special dinner invitation for those lucky enough!” He is also an engaging movie buff, and a regular visitor to the Golden Oldies nights at the Ritz. As huge fan of Steve McQueen & Fay Dunaway, his favourite movie? “No ... not Bullet. The Thomas Crown Affair.”

Authorised Credit Representative no. 403246
darren.bryant@lydian.com.au
m. 0434 159 448
www.lydian.com.au