If you can't find your answer below send us a message.

What is I-Own-It.Today?

I-Own-It.Today is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. We know I-Own-It.Today sounds like a funny name, see the I stands for Individual, because giving back starts with each of us individually, the O W N stands for Outreach Working Network. Together as individuals we make up a working network reaching out to the community, you guessed it, Today. That is how we came up with I-Own-It.Today. Together we can all give back even more to something bigger than ourselves, something outside us that together as a group we can have a bigger impact.

How did you get started?

We have always felt we were brought together for a greater purpose. We are a God centered Christian couple and we feel as if we are being directed to give back to our community. We believe we have been given a second chance. We have both overcome many very tough challenges and we have been brought together to use our talents to help others. We know we are not done, we know there is more to come, we pray and trust and believe in loving and helping others. We call this our Bigger Something.

What is this Bigger Something you keep talking about?

A Bigger Something is that thing you are so thankful for that you just need to pay it forward. We all have something like that, whether it is a new job, a raise, our kids, finding parking upfront at the store, a second chance, a stranger's smile, whatever it is we encourage everyone to think deep down about how you can give someone else that feeling. How can you give back for that Bigger Something you received.

How do you support yourself?

We rely on the kindness and energy of volunteers at events. Our money is raised through personal and private donations. We do a few small fundraisers a year. We strive to keep our volunteer events free to participants and the clients who come enjoy and participate. We are here to help give people a way to give back for their Bigger Something.

What kinds of donations do you accept?

We accept cash, check and credit card donations, gently used, clean clothing, small travel size toiletry items, feminine products, non-perishable food items, school supplies, and pet food.
